The Holy Spirit at Women of Destiny

By: Richard Dean

“Someone is here today that has said, ‘I have tried to get free but I can’t.’” Karen Lewis said as she opened the monthly meeting of Women of Destiny. “You will get free today. You don’t have to live in bondage any more.”

About 15 years ago did something incredible. It was the kind of thing one does not hear about but a few times in a lifetime. Pastor Doris L. Lewis walked barefoot through the snow in the winter months in states such as Minnesota, New Jersey, and North Carolina (cont on pg 3).

Prayer at Timothy

By: R. D. Hempton

On Wednesday 14 September Timothy Baptist Church West hosted a four-day prayer conference with Elder Joyce A. Heard.

The Elder Joyce Heard at the prayer conference

The Timothy Baptist West Praise Team with Rusha Cooper, Janet Rodney, and Tish Mangum opened the evening with worship music. Ms. Heard began in II Chronicles 7:1-3. When Solomon finished praying, fire from God came (cont on pg 7)

Women of Destiny (from pg 1)

Michelle Pritchett played the deep worship music she is famous for. This is the music that will wrap around one's spirit and carry you into the presence of the Father.

Lynn Adams instituted the offering with a moving piece of oratory.

Lynn Adams of Women of Destiny

Michelle sang, "The more I find you, the more I love you. The more I seek you, the more I find you."

The speaker for the month, Pastor Patsy Garrett was introduced. "We need to wake up with Jesus on our minds." She told the group.

The pastor spoke about her missionary trip to Alaska. "The barriers were there as we went house to house. It was cold and I don't mean the temperature. It turned out that, years earlier, they had been tortured by "Christian" missionaries, who took the children, would not allow them to speak their native language or even see their families. We did win their trust, however."

"I came here today to talk about the three sides of God.

"The first is the Judgment side. Zechariah 11:1-9 speaks of this. Judgment is coming down on the USA, but we serve a God who will take care of his people. It is time for God to lift up his people. God is not playing games. Judgment is coming. This includes those that are playing church. It is time for God to cleanse us, cleanse our hearts. Lord sanctify my eyes and crucify my flesh. Judgment begins in the house of God. Search your own heart today.

"The second side of God is the compassion side. Mark 6:34 tells of this compassion. It says that Jesus began to teach them many things. One of those things was love. Jesus said, 'If you have seen me, you have seen the father.' It is time for the shepherds to care for the flock. The compassion of Jesus is still here today. In Mark 6:44 five thousand men were fed. He fed them with five small loaves and two fish. He asked them what they had. He asks you what you have. It may not seem like much to you but he can use it. In Mark they gathered up 12 baskets full of left-overs. God is a God of more than enough, but you have to surrender everything and he will multiply it.

"The third side of God is the strength side. The weak say, 'I am strong.' His strength makes us mighty warriors. God can and will do it. He spoke all things into being. His strength makes us more than conquerors."

Women at the altar call

After Pastor Garrett spoke nine women went up at the altar call for prayer, healing, deliverance, and the blessing of God. One of these was a woman we will call Mabel. Her story is quite remarkable.

During the worship, this reporter was praying in the spirit. The Lord made it clear that the woman in the blue sweater needed prayer. This information was shared with Karen Lewis, who was praying in the very back of the room.

"She is the one I spoke about at the beginning of the meeting." Karen shared. Mabel received the prayer the Lord wanted her to have. The meeting was truly a remarkable event.

There was a lady present at the meeting that was praying for others. She displayed an incredible quality. She was able to actually feel the pain of others – physical as well as emotional pain. Her name was Urita Hodge. When she prayed for someone it was like she became completely connected with them.

Urita Hodge prayed for many women at the Women of Destiny meeting in September.

One of those who received prayer at WOD

Women of Destiny usually meets on the first Saturday of each month. Exact times may be obtained by calling Karen Lewis at (770)307-1860.

She did this all winter for a reason. Mother Lewis called it a barefoot dedication. She walked all over praying for people, healing cancer victims and other sick people.

A visit to Move of God is a Friday night well spent. More people need to know that there is a church service on Friday night.

The barefoot preacher herself at MOG

Nancy Arnold opened the service with Proverbs 3:5-6. "Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths."

Praise and worship at MOG

Praise and worship began with Bishop Jerry Arnold singing, "Bless that wonderful name of Jesus," with Dolores Davis on the keyboard.

Bishop Arnold testified about circumcised and uncircumcised faith. "Uncircumcised faith, you can't take it anywhere. It's always getting infections. But with circumcised faith, all the stuff that can get infected has been removed."

nature. "...walk in the spirit and you will not fulfill the lust of the flesh." Gal 5:17 – "For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other: so that ye cannot do the things that ye would.' You cannot carry out the things that you want to do – neither for the good nor the bad. Verse 18 tells us that, if we are led by the Spirit, we are not under the law and verses 19 through 21 tells us that the works of the flesh are manifest, in other words, apparent, obvious. Then there is a list of those works. Verses 22 and 23 list the counterparts, the fruit of the spirit. Finally, verses 24 and 25 tell us to live in the spirit but also to walk in the spirit.”

There are so few churches that hold services on Friday nights. Spending a Friday at Move of God is a great idea. Try it. You’ll like it. The service begins at quarter ‘til eight.

been under the Atlanta Mission, it and the other stores like it used to be called the Potter’s House and about two years ago the name changed to Atlanta Mission Thrift Store and More.

“I believe the Potter’s House facility in Jefferson is the best program we offer.” Melanie Phillips, manager of the Atlanta Mission Thrift Store in Winder told BFN. The Potter’s House in Jefferson is a Christ-centered addiction recovery center. The Winder location, like the other locations, helps fund the recovery centers so that the program can be offered for free.

Although there are many volunteers from the Potter’s House in Jefferson that help in the thrift store, there are only three permanent employees: Melanie Phillips, the manager, Tonya Doyle, and Savannah Cox. The men from the Potter’s house work at the store for six hours each day that they work but the three ladies staff the establishment the entire time it is open during the day.

Pastor Williams picked up where the speaker stopped on the subject. “As long as we stay divided, we can only accomplish tiny pockets of work. But together we can pool our resources. We need to learn to love one another here so we can love one another up there.”

Pastor Williams took us all to I Chronicles 4:9-10. “And Jabez was more honorable than his brethren: and his mother called his name Jabez, saying, ‘because I bare him with sorrow.’

“And Jabez called on the God of Israel, saying, ‘Oh that thou wouldst bless me indeed, and enlarge my coast, and that thine hand would be with me, and that thou wouldst keep me from evil, that it may not grieve me!’ And God granted him that which he requested.”

“It was not a selfish request because he believed that God had the ability to do what he asked. He asked 1) that God would bless him and 2) and enlarge his coast – his territory – his place of influence. He asked God to 3) keep His hand with him, a very powerful thing. He also asked that God would 4) keep him from evil – harm, pain. God granted his request. This is the only place in the Bible where Jabez is mentioned.

Pastor Williams delivering his sermon

“Bruce Wilkinson wrote a book about the prayer of Jabez. Why have so many been blessed by reading this book? Because of Romans 10:17. It will get down inside of you. If you spend time with God in a certain thing until it becomes part of your thinking, you will become strong in it. The enemy doesn’t want you to be strong in these things. James tells us to be doers of the word and not hearers only.

In Mat 17:14 a man knelt down before Jesus and asked him to cast the devil out of his son that the disciples could not. Jesus cast out the demon and the disciples asked him why they could not. He answered that it was because of their unbelief. He then added that the kind of demon they were up against only comes out with fasting and prayer.

“You’ve got to get over there on the God side of everything. He is not limited in his power. You just have to get over there with God. You don’t need education. You need revelation.

Do you think God is broke? He is a God of increase. If you are lost, you are on the wrong side of God, but when you are saved, you are on the right side. This is spiritual increase. God is a God of increase because of what Jesus did. God has been in a harvest ever since.

“In sowing, even for the unsaved, causes increase. Church folks are some of the most broke people there are. Why? Because they don’t know the principle of sowing and reaping. If God granted Jabez his request, what would he do for a blood-washed child of his?

“Psalm 115:16 tells us that, ‘The heavens are the Lord’s, but the earth he has given to the children of men.’ The devil is a squatter. He will take everything we allow him to take. Take back everything he took.”

Hope Fellowship has about fifty believers ready to take back whatever the devil takes. It is a teaching and training facility.

Church leaders include Jason Bailey, teacher of Sunday School and deacon; Tishetta Peters, youth leader; Alisha Oliver, youth leader in the clothing ministry; and Sabrina Bailey, also in the clothing ministry.

In November there will be a street outreach with food and clothes. There is a healing service at 1900 (7pm) every first Sunday. There is a clothes closet every 2nd Saturday from 0830 to 1200, a men’s ministry at 1000, and a women’s ministry at 1200. The church has leadership training every 3rd Saturday from 1300 to 1430 (230pm) for all those who want to serve in the church and people from other churches.

The church was started four years ago in September.

Pastor Williams is a licensed substance abuse counselor and has worked at Project Adam for 14 years. He was saved in 1987. He was suicidal and living in darkness. He cried out to the Lord. He told God, “If you will help me to understand your word, I will help others. We all need to find out our purpose and pursue it with all our heart.” Pastor Johnny Williams began preaching shortly after he was saved and has been married for almost 30 years

Going Home (From pg one)

Pastor Maggie Eloise Damons (Mother Damons), after a long, hard lifetime of dedicated work for the Lord, finally got to go home. She was escorted home by a team of angels of the Living God on Friday 9 September 2011.

Mother Damons’ funeral was at 1100 Saturday 17 September 2011. It was the most incredible funeral this reporter may have ever seen. It was held at Mother Damons’ church, Pentecostal Deliverance Church of Faith in Winder. It was not a tear-filled goodbye, but a very joyful occasion. There appeared to be about 500 people seated and another 150 standing all around the church. Another 40 to 60 people, who came a little late, did not even have room to stand inside. A few left and the rest stood outside the front door. The front doors of the church were, therefore left open. This reporter was there by 1000 but still gave up his seat to stand in the back so that a lady could sit. The fact that there was not even enough room to stand is evidence of just how many lives Mother Damons touched in her service to the Lord.

People, including many pastors, from all over the U. S. came to celebrate the life of Pastor Eloise Damons.

The Reverend Dr. Roosevelt Allen, Pastor of Holy Bethel Church of God in Christ, officiated the celebration, which included the processional with Bishop Gregory A. Bryant, the pastor of Fountain of Praise Deliverance

Center. The opening prayer was carried out by the Reverend Christopher Wimberly Sr, of Hunter Hill First Baptist Church, and the anointed praise by Pastor Thelma Lemons and members of Saints Tabernacle United Pentecostal Church. Pastor Camilla Pope read scripture from the Old Testament, and Pastor Wayne Moore read scripture from the New Testament. The evangelist Rozetta Allen, co-pastor of Holy Bethel, read the acknowledgements and obituary. This was followed by testimonials people gave of what Mother Damons brought about in their lives. This part was intended to last 10 to 15 minutes but extended to about 40 minutes. A Word of Exaltation was delivered by Kerry Pope, pastor of Bethesda Church of Deliverance, followed by “Our Beloved Pastor,” a reading by the Reverend Robert Harris. Mother Damons’ son, Pastor Michael Pope delivered the Eulogy.

In addition to those mentioned above, pastors and others from many different churches attended the funeral. Pastor Kenneth and First Lady Laqueeta Cooper of Kingdom Community; Pastor Doris Lewis (Mother Lewis) and Ruby Jones the evangelist, as well as several others from Move of God Church; Pastor Usia and First Lady Tajwana Lyons of Temple of Glory; Pastor Willie Harris of Christ Outreach; Pastor Walter Cleveland and First Lady Ashanda Cleveland of Next Level; Pastor Philip Adair of Sanctuary of the Holy Spirit; Pastor Betty Arnold of New Harvest; Pastor Alfred Hazel of White Oak Springs; Pastor Lemechel (Meco) Allen and Dorthea (Lovie) Allen (Mother Damons’ neice) of Believer’s Christian; Pastor Alwon Mayweather (Mother Damons’ great nephew), youth pastor of Temple of Glory were all people this reporter saw at the funeral.

Pastor Eloise Damons was born on 8 June 1938 and grew up in Winder but relocated to Cleveland, Ohio in the early 1960s. She was filled with the Holy Ghost and baptized in the name of Jesus Christ under the leadership of Bishop A. D. Porter. After many years, she returned to Winder and founded Pentecostal Deliverance Church of Faith and served as its pastor, giving birth to countless other ministries and servants of the Most High God until the Lord called her home.

Over the years, Mother Damons and the church have been a tremendous blessing to so many. Uncountable souls were saved, healed, delivered and set free, all to the honor and glory of the Lord Jesus Christ. The many ministries and anointed people that have come from Pentecostal Deliverance are making a difference in the lives of countless others.

The body of Mother Damons was interred at Barrow Memorial Gardens with Bishop G. A. Bryant, the man Pastor Eloise Damons deemed her spiritual leader for over 30 years, officiating.

The Repast was held at the Park Avenue Event Center immediately after the funeral. Photographs were taken there and not at the funeral to avoid disrespectful distraction.

A life well lived in service to the Lord is to be celebrated. The only sad part about Pastor Damons going home is that we won't be seeing her for a little while. Her joy is now complete.

down and consumed the offering and the glory of the Lord filled the house. The priests could not even go inside the house of the Lord because his glory had filled the house. When the Israelites saw all of this, they bowed down with their faces to the ground on the pavement.

How did Solomon pray to the Lord? In I Chron 6:13, it says he "kneeled down upon his knees before all the congregation of Israel, and spread forth his hands toward heaven.

"People this is the way to pray to God if you want to get his attention."

"This was 500 years after Moses made the tabernacle." The elder told the congregation. "It took seven years and was finished in the seventh month (about 960 BC)."

"Solomon prayed that the people would be faithful to God so God could be faithful to them.

"What is written in the book God has of you up there?"

“The fire showed Solomon that God approved of his prayer and the offering.

“God wants us praying. Jeremiah 33:3 says, ‘Call unto me, and I will answer thee, and show thee great and mighty things, which thou knowest not.’

“When a mother hears her baby crying, she comforts him. When God hears his baby crying, he comforts you. Get out of any complacency and be with God. No prayer is no power; little prayer is little power and strong prayer is strong power.

“The tares and the wheat look alike until they are mature. When the wheat matures, it bows its head down humbly.

Ms. Joyce Heard greeting the people at the church “Without God’s power you can operate only in the flesh. Psalm 19:1 says, ‘The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament shows his handiwork. Glory in Hebrew is kabod (Pron kaw-bode) and in Greek it is doxa. The glory will produce 1) a clean, peaceful foundation for you to operate in; 2) a place of manifested power – things will happen that you can see. He works where he can be seen and so he will get the glory; 3) when the glory shows up, there is matchless power. You are invincible with the glory. To have electricity, you have to be connected to the power company. To get God’s power, you have to be connected.

The Elder Joyce Heard after the first night of the conference at Timothy Baptist West

House of Refuge

By: Mateo Raza

It was September 11th at the House of Refuge Church. It was a time for remembrance. Pastor Hal McElhannon announced the revival at the church to begin on 2 October.

Pastor John Hayes laid a $20 bill on the floor. “Tithing is commanded by God. So, we’re going to teach it. If you want to tear that page out of the Bible, then you might as well tear some other pages out as well. I John 2:15 tells us that, ‘If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.’ I Tim 6:10 tells us that, ‘The love of money is the root of all sorts of evil.’ Romans 8:28 says, ‘God causes all things to work together for good to them that love the Lord, that are called to his purpose.’ Jude 21 tells us to, ‘keep yourselves in the love of God.’ “What are we persuaded by? Do we love the Lord enough to obey him? The tithe does not belong to us. It belongs to God. Paying tithes is not giving. It is paying God what already belongs to him.

Worship by flag waving

Worship is free worship at House of Refuge, a most unique concept

The unique worship at House of Refuge

After the offering, the worship began. There was dancing, hand shaking, people hugging each other, upbeat music, flag waving, running, kneeling. People are free to worship God the way they worship him – very refreshing.

Pam McElhannon, First Lady of the church began speaking about that September morning in 2001. "What of those who knew they were going to die by fire or jump? They jumped. If you don't know the Lord, you are in that situation. What the devil meant for evil, God will turn for good. The suffering and tragedy may not be for us. It may be for someone across the nation."

Pastor Hal began his sermon from Luke 8:40-54. "Why is it that my prayers are not being answered? Jesus set a demon-possessed man free on the Gadarenes side of the sea of Galilee. The people asked him to leave. He never explained anything to them or tried to change their minds. He just left. This nation pushes God out. So, it will be on its own."

"Jairus was a very important man, but he still fell on his face in front of Jesus because his daughter was dying. As Jesus proceeded to heal her, the crowd thronged him. There was a woman who had an issue of blood for twelve years. She knew if she could just touch the hem of his garment, she would be healed. She had an issue of blood, so it was unlawful for her to even approach him. But she sneaked through the crowd and touched the bottom of his garment. When she did, he said, 'Who touched me?'"

She fell before him and confessed. "Jairus was an important man. Everyone was always watching him. Are you willing to fall down at his feet in front of everybody and ask for his help? Jairus was because his love for his little girl motivated him more than his pride. Love will bust pride."

"Sometimes we make demands of him instead of requests. Jairus first worshipped him and then made his request. Neither did Jairus become jealous of the blessing received by the woman with the issue of blood. We reap what we sow."

Lady worshipping on her knees

Pam McElhannon speaking about 9/11 In Matthew 15:21-28, when a Canaanite woman cried after Jesus that her daughter was demon-possessed, Jesus did not answer her. He told his disciples, 'I am not sent but to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.' Then the woman came and worshipped him, saying, 'Lord help me.' Jesus told her that it was not right to take the children's bread and give it to the dogs. "Yes Lord, but even the dogs eat the crumbs that fall from the table."

Pastor Hal in his sermon

"Woman, great is your faith. Be it to you as you will."

I want you to leave here today with two things:
1) Jesus hears you when you pray and
2) Go to him with praise and thanksgiving

When the Gentile woman worshipped him, she was able to get an answer.

Know Your Enemy Continued from September

By: Zac Sims

Come with me to the armory storehouse for ambassadors and soldiers of God. As the massive vault doors unlatch and begin to open. Light floods in and the glare of a windshield meets your eyes. The F22 Raptor of prayer is revealed. The Raptor Jet fighter is valued as one of the most effective war machines known to man. It can fly in able and agile with sound-breaking speed nearing mach III an annihilate its target. Communication with God does the same for his soldiers. TALK TO HIM! He Waits outside the cage fight of life. TAG HIM IN!

What is the first rule of engagement in warfare? Rule of engagement #1: Know your enemy. One must know who and where the attack comes from in order to efficiently retaliate. When the bombs of circumstantial doubt shake the barracks, we must stop rationalizing and calibrate the munition systems of the Raptor to target the devil and take cover under our shield. If you know Christ as your Lord and savior and seek to follow him, a fallen angel is seeking to destroy you. His mission is to make you an ineffective soldier and defuse you. Most of the attacks we face can be traced to an ancient serpent. If you have picked up the cross to answer the call of duty to Christ, there is a laser dot on your forehead and Satan's crosshairs are on your life. He is now your worst enemy. Who is Satan?

To fully answer that question, we must first learn of who he was.

Go to Ezekiel 28:12-19 and then Isaiah 14:12-14. He was once an angel of light in the presence of God. He was created in perfect beauty but something terrible happened and wickedness was found in him. His heart became proud. His attention was stuck on his beauty and on himself. The me, me, me – the I, I, I game was played in heaven.

This realigned what God was willing to put up with. His creation became conceited, prideful, stubborn and defiant to God's perfect will. The result? A war in heaven found in Revelation 12:7-9, one that ends with Satan being knocked out of heaven so fast that his pants caught fire, making him "fall like lightning to earth."

There is humor in this. In the November issue, I will show it to you.

God Bless You All

Love in Christ

Zac

The Whole Body of Christ Alliance

is a body of believers from many churches, denominations and ministries that work toward unity in the body of Christ; not all under one pastor but as individual organ systems in a single body. As the Bible instructs us, we are to work together synergistically and not against each other, nor are we to be independent of one another. Neither are we to compete with one another. No organ functioning on its own will survive for very long.

This organization seeks talented individuals to help in this mission. We are in need of resources, especially the most valuable resources – people. You do not need a degree. What is required is a true desire to serve Jesus Christ without dogmatic constraints and that you either are now or are willing to become absolutely sold out to Jesus (not to this alliance or to your denomination).

If you have the desire to glorify the name of Jesus, one of the things you were created for, and your talents are not being fully used, contact us using the information previously provided. If you wish to have an article published in the BATTLEFIELD NEWS or have a comment on anything you read in this publication, contact us. Your article may be published. Be sure to keep a copy since your article will not be returned to you. Nor will you receive any financial compensation for it.

Most things that appear in this eleventh edition of BATTLEFIELD NEWS are not copyrighted material. All ministries are encouraged to reproduce all or any part of it for God's purposes.

If the Whole body of Christ Alliance has not contacted your church or pastor and your body of believers would be included, we will get to your church eventually, but do not wait until next year. The Lord may come for his bride before that. Contact us.

Missy's September Coffee House

By: Mateo Raza

Missy does it again; another successful coffee house. Larry Percifield hosted Missy's Coffee House and began by announcing that Missy's family had all come to the coffee house.

Love Letter to My Daughters from Your FATHER

By: Dorthea (Lovie) Allen

You made some decisions that got you in the place where you are now. Its uncomfortable and its hard. I never intended for you to suffer in this way. It was not my plan for you, but you made choicesthat did not agree with what I had in mind for you. But if you will trust me now, I will turn your situation around – no matter how difficult it may be.

Trust Me now. Turn to Me with your whole heart. I will protect you. I will destroy your enemies (anyone that pulls you away from me or that comes to depress you or oppress you).

Admit that you turned away from me. Do not blame me anymore for the choices you made. I am GOD. My plans are to prosper you. My plans are to make you dwell in high places. My plan is to give you rest. I still have great plans for you. And what you are dealing with now is nothing from Me. I am GOD. Just tell me that you will trust me, Just tell me that you will consult with ME first before making any choices or decisions small or great.

You must think like I think. You must do what I do. You must say what I say. You must go where I go. Abide in ME and MY WORDS in you and ask ME anything and I will do it for you. When your mind changes, you will know what to aks ME. You will ask ME according to MY WILL for you.

I take pleasure in performing my works in you. I take pleasure in blessing you. I take pleasure in helping you. TRUST ME. Will you TRUST

ME? I am ready and able! Are you ready and willing? Are you ready to give me all of you? I will make ways for you. I will open new doors for you.

For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the Lord, thoughts of peace and not of evil, to give you an expected end. Jeremiah 29:11
Loving You Forever,
GOD

Someone in the audience asked Deena if Grail ever spoke. She answered, "When I tell him to." Larry gave a testimony.

"I was told I had prostate cancer. I had a biopsy to find out what kind. When I went for the results, the machine had to be activated by the lady's thumbprint. I saw her wiping off her thumb and commented about how difficult it must be in the morning after bisuits. I laughed. She looked at me and said, 'You're weird. Most people waiting for results aren't happy.'

"Well, I know God has got this. There is no cancer."
"She looked at it and exclaimed, 'I can't believe it. Its negative.'
"I told you."

Rhonda Percifield gave her testimony as well followed by the poem by Neyda Hempton, Father, oh Father, her testimony and a "Dear God" letter.

Larry Percifield told of a man in 2001 who was extremely angry and frustrated when he had a flat tire because it caused his wife to miss her flight. Shortly thereafter, they discovered that that missed flight crashed into the South Tower on 9/11. This same man's father, who was a member of the New York Fire Department, went to the city to help in the rescue. He died doing it. Two weeks later, a man came to him and expressed his gratitude that the man's father saved his wife's life. He told the son that his wife had led the father to Christ just before his death.

Bill Williams came onto the stage next and asked for special prayer for his heart and health. He sang a song, The Night Jack Daniels Met John 3:16. It was an original song from Bill's life.

This was the point at which the evangelist, Fay Williams spoke.

"If we can dance for the devil," said Bill Williams, "We can dance for the Lord." Janet Rodney took the stage to testify and to sing. Her music track would not work so she sang a capella – beautifully. She sang Because of Who You Are.

Savannah Mason and Noah Wahl sang Amazing Grace and a man came to the altar. Deena King, Savannah and her mother, Robin Mason sang Where Could I Go but to the Lord. The last one on stage was Missy Iler testifying about how God worked in the life of her son.

Luke Attaway being prayed over

Luke Attaway, who came to the coffee house using a walker, was prayed over by Pastor Russell Page, Missy Iler, Fay Williams, Grail King, and Sissy Page and he left without the walker.

Mary's Second Coffee House

By Donna Michelle Iler

Mary's Coffee House was opened by Janet Rodney and Missy Iler. Janet asked some of the people to introduce themselves and share a little about themselves.

Mary Bowman at her coffee house in Winder

One of the hosts of Mary's Janet Rodney

Janet spoke to Deena and Grail King, Sissy and Mrs (Momma) Page, Vanessa Bevers, and Lovie Allen and Pastor Betty Arnold.

Janet explained that the coffee houses support unity in the Body of Christ.

Rhonda Percifield shared her testimony about how God delivered her from addiction and healed her body.

Pastor Raphael of the band Centro de Adoracion Renacer announced that he prayed that the Holy Spirit would move. He then prayed prayer for unity in the Body of Christ. As Centro de Adoracion Renacer began playing, the whole atmosphere changed. They began with a little taste of Spanish. Their second song, Celebrate Jesus started some people dancing. The Spanish/English songs brought this reporter to the feeling of the pure heart of worship.

Centro de Adoracion Renacer

“Can Christians be demon possessed?” asked Pastor Larry Pruett of Emmanuel Worship Center. “Absolutely not. But church members can.” This was the opening to the drama done by the Emmanuel Players.

Lovie Allen and Pastor Betty Arnold at Mary’s

Joyful Spirit took the stage next singing Deena King’s Pray for Me. Deena then called up anyone who would come to sing an unrehearsed version of How Great is Our God. The musical variety continued with Joel, who performed his Rap J-E-S-U-S. Tunia shared her testimony with Deborah translating about how she could not worship the Lord in Cuba. She accepted Christ in a friend’s garage.

Demons after AJ in the Emmanuel players’ drama at Mary’s Coffee House

The angel of the Lord showed up and defeated the demons because of the young man’s worship. The drama warns of involvement with the occult and how any involvement invites demonic influences into one’s life.

Dorthea (Lovie) Allen brought Love Letter to My Daughters From Your Father (see pg 13) but was unable to stay long enough to share it. She left it with Missy Iler, who read it at the coffee house. “Awesome!” Theresa page told BFN about Mary’s, “God is here. I loved it. I have really been blessed.”

“I saw wonderful things take place here.” Said Lorraine Lamb. “The worship was great.” Larry Percifield closed in prayer.

Ten: the Gadites, I Chron 12:8

Level 6

The answer to this question is not found in most Bibles. The Hebrew name of the man who was the brother of Mary and Martha (Miriam and Marta) whom Christ raised from the dead is Eleazar. It is literally El Azar, which is also a correct answer. However, no one in the Bible was called El Azar. This may be found in most dictionaries under "Lazarus." It also may be found in most Bible dictionaries.
