Next Level of Miracle Kingdom Revival

By Tony Bertsch & Donese Mercaldo

On 3 October a 5-day revival began at Miracle Deliverance House of Prayer. Guest pastors spoke each night. On 4 October the guest pastor was Pastor Walter Cleveland of Next Level Church.

October 7 at 7

By Richard Dean

Four times a year the Whole Body of Christ Alliance holds a 7 at 7 – a seven-day revival at seven different churches. This always happens at 1900 (7 pm) nightly in the middle week of January, April, July, and October.

Pastor Larry Percifield bringing the Word

The first night (Monday) of revival was held at Anointed Hands Ministries in Braselton. Dr. Lorrie Richardson-O'Neal welcomed all and opened the service in prayer. This was followed by acoustic guitar praise and worship music. The reverend Missy Iler spoke about United Front Ministries, "I come from a mining community in Harlan Co. KY.(Cont. on pg 6)

A Play That Don't Play

By R. D. Hempton

When Pastor Linda Smith has a play, they don't play. This play was designed to make people have to realize that where they are in Christ is more important than anything, to be confronted with the reality of Jesus not knowing them.

A glimpse of hell

The play began with a nativity seen with the young Miriam (Hebrew for Mary), played by Rebecca Peppers, seen in the cave used as a stable for livestock in the first century. The angelic host entered and Pastor Linda welcomed all and was almost interrupted by the evil one and his demons. Pastor Linda narrated the story of Christ and all he suffered and endured for us the day he died. (Cont. on pg. 7)

Pavilion Revival

By Richard Dean

A four-day revival began at the pavilion in Winder on Sunday 21 October. It was the combined effort of Pastor John Duncan of Faith Tabernacle and Pastor Kenneth Simpson of Winder Worship Center. People from other churches were also at the revival. Some sang, testified, or played music. The service began with the Southern Gospel music of Larry LaCount. This was followed by Misty Shinthcomb, Bonnie Riffe, and Pastor Kenny Simpson sang He Knows My Name. After all the music, Skip Anderson gave a testimony about the goodness of God. (Cont. on pg.14)

Pastor John Duncan of Faith Tabernacle

Kingdom Miracle Revival

By R. D. Hempton

On 23 October a three-day revival began at Kingdom Community Worship Center. At the beginning of October Pastor Carol Patman celebrated the first church anniversary with a revival and Pastor Kenneth Cooper preached.

Pastor Kenneth Cooper of KCWC

On the 23rd a revival began hosted by Pastor Cooper and Pastor Carol Patman preached. The Thursday night service began with Pastor Cooper welcoming all, "Buddha can't bless us, Mohammed can't bless us, Confucius can't bless us. Only you can bless us, Lord. Send the anointing, Father. Everything the enemy sent against us is defeated." (cont. on pg. 15)

Lynn Adams introducing Lovie Allen

Lovie Allen, a very dynamic preacher

“I am not a traditional preacher,” shared Lovie, and the sighs of relief were almost audible, as if to say, “Thank you, Father. We are so tired of traditional preachers.”

“I am a work in progress. Who will be honest with you? The people in your house, especially your children. They don’t know how to cover it up. They just tell it like it is.

“God will reveal mysteries to us and it starts with us. What’s wrong with us? If you are one that sees everything that’s wrong with everyone else, but not what is wrong with you, you will not be able to hear God.

“Your praise needs to match your trials. The Bible says, ‘Many are the afflictions of the righteous.’ If you want to reign with him, you must suffer with him. If you ever start blessing God and praising him, you’ll forget about a lot of other stuff.

“Mat 27:55 says, ‘And many women were there beholding afar off, which followed Jesus from Galilee, ministering unto him.’ If anyone can get a prayer through and touch Jesus, it’s a woman. Jer 1:5 says, ‘Before I formed you in the belly I knew thee; and before thou camest forth out of the womb I sanctified thee.’ Rom 9:11 tells us, ‘For the children being not yet born, neither having done any good or evil, that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of him that calleth.’ II Tim 1:9 tells us that we are saved and called with a holy calling, but not because of our works. Instead, it is because of God’s purpose and God’s grace –this purpose and grace that was given to us before the world began. I John 3:8 reminds us that the Son of God was manifested that he might destroy the works of the devil. Rom 8:28 tells us that what happens is never chance but on purpose. We must live our lives on purpose- on his purpose. Live on purpose. Live on purpose. Live on purpose. Don’t let anyone or anything distract you. Live on purpose. Before you were born God had purpose for you.

“If anyone can get to the Lord, it is a woman. He made us nurturing and loving like that. A woman can hear her baby cry and know what type of cry it is – pain, hunger, etc. “In everything give thanks, for it is God’s will. He will hear and know that it is thanks with some pain in it – IN IT. Pray IN IT. The greater the pain, the greater the blessing.

“God lets church folks see my faults and talk about them. God used Peninnah to irritate Hannah to her purpose. Don’t be distracted by the pain and what those church folks do.

“Promise children don’t come quickly because the enemy is walking by the scene to stop them. The enemy will always do all possible to distract you from your purpose. You have a nation, a city, a family to save. Do what most women do not want to do – submit and live on purpose.”

Rev. Connie began singing accompanied by her husband, as Ms. Lovie began praying over people.

“I am a work in progress. Who will be honest with you? The people in your house, especially Psalm 91:1.

The praise team from Next Level sang next just before First Lady Ashanda Cleveland introduced Pastor Walter Cleveland.

"Instead of the word changing the world," Began Pastor Cleveland, "the world changes the word. We are to be doing what the King is doing. We were designed to change the world, but we allow the world to change us. Jesus can't be like everyone else. Swelling is not necessarily growth. Just because a church swells does not mean it is actually growing. Infections cause swelling also. In Mat 16:13-19 Peter knew who Jesus was. In Luke 22:31-32 Jesus told Peter that he was praying for him. The Pastor praises you one minute and the next he tells you that he is praying for you that your faith faileth not."

The Reverend Mickey McConnell

Almighty God Refuses

Access By: Mickey McConnell

READER'S NOTE: There are many advantages to the body of Christ being in unity – many things we can do if we have it that we cannot otherwise do. We continue to lose battle after battle because we have not yet attained it. But it is not just a good idea; Almighty God commands it.

Mickey McConnell has written a book on the subject, Almighty God Refuses Access, available through the Battlefield News. We have permission to print from it. Mickey has been a pastor, a missionary, and worked with troubled young men. He is a speaker, an author, and a godly brother in Christ.

Rick

Let me introduce you to what I just referred to as half-truth doctrines. These are doctrines that are partly based upon the scriptures, but mixed with something else, that is in no way a requirement of the Almighty. Because truth is mixed with it, these doctrines sound right, and seem defensible. On the face, they appear to be Biblical; however, this is not pure truth, but watered-down version of the truth; or worse yet, a perversion of the truth. (cont. on pg 5)

Sunday 7 October was the last night of the celebration with the pastor Dr. Yulonda Lewis.

Almighty God Refuses Access (from pg 3)

Because it is the truth that makes us free, anything less than the truth has the tendency of reducing the adherent to chains. People in denominations unwittingly enslave people with half-truths, thinking they are doing Almighty God a service. We are not to compromise the truth. We are not to embellish the truth. We are not to twist the truth. We are not to confuse the truth. To neglect part of the truth in doctrine is to invite trouble, strife, and disunity.

Have you ever felt like there are Calvinistic scriptures, or Wesleyan scriptures, or Catholic scriptures, or verses that really belong to another sect? This is a profound understanding. There are only Holy Bible scriptures, and they are all inspired by the Holy Spirit. We are forbidden to pick and choose. All scripture is given by inspiration of Almighty God, and not just the part we prefer. The scriptures do not contradict each other, but they compliment one another. The word "complement" means to complete or make perfect. Relevant scripture is not to be feared or shied away from. It is these passages that complete or make perfect the doctrine you are concerned with. (Cont. on pg 6)

Be Not Deceived...

By: Jeff Carr

The Reverend Jeff Carr of Cross of Christ

Delightfully Decisive for Christ

Much to their surprise Patti accepted their invitation, and then further delighted them by "asking Jesus into her heart" at the very first Sunday school class that she attended. Her forthright and sincere questions in class, followed by a bold decision for Christ right there on the spot, delighted the other class members as well.

The pastor was even told of her conversion just before he preached that morning. When he finished his sermon, he enthusiastically introduced Patti to the congregation as a "very promising addition to the (Cont. on pg. 6)

Almighty God Refuses Access (from pg. 5)

This is helpful, for it keeps a person from error. To view all the scriptures as a whole is both wise and safe. To neglect some verses, leads to incomplete doctrine. The passages that each denomination wants to avoid are the very passages that complement and complete their doctrines, balance to what is otherwise out of balance. Instead incorporating these complementary passages into their doctrines, denominations brassily go about explaining them away, as if we really don't need them. We treat some precepts as important and others as unimportant: as if, the Almighty should have consulted us, before he inspired the ones we consider important. In essence, these are "made of none effect" by sectarian doctrines. These things ought not to be. Do you see how utterly ridiculous it is to diminish any part of the Holy Bible? How can unity come, with phenomena such as these? It is quite presumptuous to tamper with wisdom that is established by the one who is wiser than we are.

Be Not Deceived (from pg 5)

the kingdom of God." That afternoon he and his wife took Patti out to lunch and shared with her in detail the vision they had for their church. They immediately invited Pattie to get more involved in the church's activities and programs.

A Year Later Unexpected Frustration

Less than a year later, Pattie was teaching Sunday school class for divorced women in her age group, and trying to help them gain a greater sense of self-esteem. Patti was not aware of Romans 8:19 that says, "all of creation was subjected to frustration, not by its own will but by the will of the One who subjected it, in hope that the creation itself would be set free from its bondage to decay and brought into the glorious freedom of the children of God."

At first, she was admired by all of the women and her class grew, but gradually her students became frustrated with her inability to comprehend or help them with the more painful issues and struggles in their daily lives. Pam in turn became very frustrated with their inability to grasp what she was teaching. She was confused and saddened that she could not help them walk with more confidence and discipline in their personal lives. Soon the women grew jealous and resentful.

Patti was not aware that there could be a purpose to this time of frustration. She was even less aware of why she should, or how she could appreciate the work of the Cross in her situation to redeem it. Therefore, she resigned as teacher, and maintained only one intimate friendship with a younger girl who had begun to visit the class and who responded to her like a little sister.

National Life Chain Sunday (from pg 1)

Come stand with other pro-life people for one hour of united silent prayer as we all pray for our nation and for the end of abortion. This is an excellent event for youth groups and Sunday school classes to participate in.

Groups and efforts like this have made huge strides in the fight to end abortion. Never give up. Never just accept that abortion is a fact of American life. It doesn't matter what the Supreme Court decided. Abortion is still murder and we will see it ended.

No one spoke at all. It was complete silence of voices. The only voice was that of Dee Toliver when she informed this reporter of what was going on in Winder.

People and groups like these have helped bring about things like HB 954, the Fetal Pain Act, which states that the General Assembly of Georgia realizes an unborn child experiences pain after 20 weeks. This bill decreases the time that abortions are allowed in Georgia from 26 to 20 weeks. Halfway through the pregnancy abortions are now illegal. It also creates additional reporting requirements for physicians who perform or attempt to perform abortions, including the gestational age of the baby and the medical emergency that required the abortion. HB 954 is a huge step in the right direction.

October 7 at 7 (from pg 1)

"When God's people unite, they can do anything. My ministry is under attack because we have a passion for unity. A revival is a renewing of life. Will we have our life - the life of the body of Christ renewed? We need to pray over the people and against the hurts. In prayer God gave me the word, 'revival.' Change is hard. It's hard but we CAN do it. Remember Eph 2:13 - 'But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far off have been brought near by the blood of Christ.'"

The hosting pastor, Dr. Kenneth O'Neal spoke. "Mat 6:33 - all these things will be added unto you. We must seek the Kingdom, not do our own thing, but seek the Kingdom. Ezekiel speaks of a wheel. A wheel has spokes but the center is Christ. When we seek the Kingdom, things can be conquered. Its about the Kingdom."

Pastor Larry Percifield brings the word.

“Just reciting the so-called sinner’s pray is not all there is,” Began Pastor Larry Percifield. “How we have come to regard it as the end when it is only the beginning is beyond me. You have to come to know the Lord. He must prepare your heart. Mat 7:13-24 speaks about those who call him ‘Lord, Lord.’ Not all will enter the Kingdom of heaven, but only those who do the will of my Father. Mat 25:31 begins and is talking about all nations, sheep and goats, “unto the least of these my brethren, you have done it unto me.” This is ministry. We did not choose the Lord. See John 15:16. He chose us so we would bear fruit, that whatever you ask the Father in my name he will give you.

“ ‘Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father in me.’ (John 14:11) ‘he who believes in me, the works I do he will do also; and greater works than these he will do because I go to my Father.’(John 14:12) ‘And whatever you ask in my name, that I will do, that the Father may be glorified in the son.’ (John 14:13) ‘If you love me, keep my commandments.’ (John 14:15).” There is much more to salvation than just saying the “sinner’s prayer.”

Julian White spoke briefly before Herman Parks closed the service in prayer.

"In Winder," said Rev. Carr, "the weak will minister to 'the strong' once the strong have fallen because of their self-righteousness. Christ was made perfect through suffering. Silence is killing the body of Christ. It is not the drug addicts, swindlers, and prostitutes that are destroying unity in the body. There are plenty of preachers that preach about unity. They preach but they won't dialog. If you don't like something, especially something about another body of believers, you learn to not like it in Christ's way. I believe that the time is coming when Rick and Marty, who are not pastors will see more unity than they do now."

"It's not about who I am," began Pastor Porter, "It's about whose I am. If I say something tonight and you feel like I'm stepping on your toes – you feel like I'm talking about you, that's called conviction." In Mat 26:31-35, Jesus told all the 12 that they would all betray and abandon him. They all denied that they would deny him. Jesus Knew the truth and, even still, he told them he would wait for them in Galilee when he was raised from the dead.

"My failure is not fatal. If we fail, God gives us another chance. If it were fatal, we would have no more chances. Because of his grace our failure does not have to be fatal. Jesus gave a prediction. He said they would stumble because of him. Peter said, 'Not me.' His presumption turned to arrogance. Peter did deny the Lord but on the day of Pentecost, Peter preached and 3000 were saved. It ain't over 'til the Lord says it's over."

The Rev. Missy Iler spoke about United Front Ministries and Unity in the body of Christ. "God can take ugly," she began, "and turn it into beautiful." She read her original poem, One Accord, and quoted from Acts 2:44.

The Rev. Rick Hempton spoke on Unity in the body of Christ as well. He spoke about some of the churches and pastors he had visited that rejected the word of God on unity and spoke about many of the reasons they gave for rejecting the coming together with other Christian bodies of believers. "If I refuse to associate with, refuse to fellowship with another body of believers because they do not interpret scripture the same way I do, the love of Christ is not in me. I can strain with all my might to keep out every 'infraction' of how I think scripture should be interpreted, but, if I do not do it with the love of Christ, I am in grave error. Jesus spoke about this, 'Woe to you scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites... ..Blind guides. You strain at a gnat and swallow a camel. We all will err in interpretation of scripture. Let us err on the side of love. Love covers a multitude of sins.'"

"Why has the devil been pushing us around for so long? Pastor Smith asked. Are you tired of him destroying our people? How do we stop him? By coming together. 1 Cor 12:13-14 says, 'For by one Spirit we were all baptized into one body... ..and we were all made to drink of one Spirit. For the body is not one member, but many.' We've got to put a team together. Night is coming, and dusk is closer than most of us know.

"We can't all go to the same church but we all serve the same God. One body! Just one! We have all got one head – Christ. But you got to have the other parts of your body to function – to get something done. We keep getting kicked around because we are not united like God wants.

"One man cannot do it all by himself just like one church cannot do it by themselves. It takes all of us. That is why Brother Rick says bringing these churches together ain't fun, because many others are not doing what they are supposed to do."

Pastor Smith held up a copy of the Battlefield News. "This the Battlefield News. Nice. For four months there was no Battlefield News. Why not? Because there was not enough money. There are 45 churches. What is up with that? Brother Rick is the quarter back, but he needs a team. Be on that team."

Pastor Jon Jackson challenged the people to be on the team.

Herman Parks closes the service in prayer

“In John 4:23 Jesus told the woman who had encountered him, ‘the hour is coming, and now is, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth; for the Father is seeking such to worship him.’ ONE DAY turns into DAY ONE. The ‘New World Order’ needs to be God’s order. On the day the Lord returns it will be a terrible day for the world, but not for the body of Christ.

“He was laid in a borrowed tomb, and anytime you borrow something you have to give it back. ONE DAY became DAY ONE. One day, one day, one day – this is a day of vanity. There must be a rebirth for the body of Christ. ONE DAY must become DAY ONE.”

People were called up to the front to be prayed over, and Herman Parks, the Bible teacher from Christ Outreach closed the service in prayer.

The fifth night of revival, Friday 19 October was hosted by Pastor Patsy Garrett and the people at Jefferson Gospel Tabernacle.

Rick Hempton speaking on unity in the body

Michelle Pritchett playing the deep worship

Pastor Warren Lewis opened the service in prayer and Pastor Patsy Garrett welcomed all. Michelle Pritchett played the deep worship music she is famous for. Rick Hempton spoke on unity in the body of Christ and the worship continued.

The speaker for the evening, the reverend Karen Lewis, president and founder of Women of Destiny brought the message.

The worship music continues

Rev. Karen Lewis appealing for unity

Praying over Pastor Patsy

“In praying about this message,” Rev. Karen began, “God said, ‘Back to the altar.’ In Acts 2:1-2 they were all gathered in one place in one accord and there was a sound as of a mighty rushing wind. There’s something about being at the altar corporately. When we come together and pray in intercession, there is power. It’s not all about me, and my family, and my problems. Our nation needs someone to stand in the gap because people are dying and going to hell. Our differences don’t amount to a hill of beans. The sounds of heaven are crying out, ‘Wake up! Do what I have called you to do.’ Can you hear him calling you to him? ‘I want to talk to you in ways you have not known before.’
“The glory of God is crying out for revival. Let us not give up until we realize what God has for us. David cried out to God in Psalm 6. ‘Return, oh Lord, deliver me... ..In the grave who will give you thanks? Depart from me, all you workers of iniquity. Let all my enemies be ashamed.

“In Acts 16:9-10 Paul has a vision of a man from Macedonia begging for Paul to come help them. Where is your Macedonia? Winder? Alaska? Mexico? Africa? Who is your Macedonian? That homeless man walking on the street? The teenager shooting up because they don’t know there is anything else? Are we missing our Macedonians, running past them preoccupied? Ask God. Pray and listen. God is calling us to seek his face like never before because time is running out.

The revival at Hope Fellowship in Winder on Friday 20 October 2012 was hosted by Pastor Johnny Williams and the people at that church.

Rick Hempton, the praise and worship music

Pastor Michael Pope brings the word

Pastor Johnny welcomed everyone to the revival and introduced Rick Hempton, who played the music for praise and worship on acoustic guitar. Rick then spoke on unity in the body of Christ just before Pastor Johnny introduced Pastor Michael Pope of Atmosphere of Praise Church in Bethlehem.
“Tonight,” began Pastor Pope, “I am going to talk about the Kingdom. Luke 11:17 says, ‘Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation.’ How will we be a church (ekklesia) without spot or wrinkle if we can’t even associate with one another?
We are the children of the King. Kingdom! Children of the King don’t just live any old way. Children of te King do not live in sin. We need to learn how to pray effectual, fervent prayers.

Kingdom! John said in Mat 3:2, ‘Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.’ In Mat 4:23 Jesus preaches the gospel of the kingdom before he works any signs.

People listening to the word

Praying over people near the end of the service

”If you’re gonna love and work with folks, you better have some anointing, or the enemy will do you like he tried to do Jesus. Your Title will outweigh the kingdom your life. You cannot win against demons without the Holy Ghost. Luke 17:20-21 says, ‘Now when he was asked by the Pharisees when the kingdom of God would come, he answered them and said, "The kingdom of God does not come with observation; nor will they say, 'See here!' or 'See there!' For indeed, the kingdom of God is within you."

"We keep trying to look with our flesh for the things of God. We have to look with our spirit. The word is there, but it has to be activated. The kingdom of God is not what we call 'holiness.' Holiness is not what we say. Gal 5:22, that is holiness. John said, 'I baptize you with water to repentance but... He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire.' You need the fire. Mark 16:15 says to go into all the world and preach the gospel. It says go, but we want to stay – stay in our church buildings. The proof of the kingdom in you are the signs mentioned in Mark 16:17. 'Believe' means to WALK in it. We are supposed to cast out devils, and too many church folks have devils in them. The serpents Jesus speaks of are also representative of the situations in your life. Most of us don't often come up against real serpents, but we all come up against the other kind. With no power the serpent will get you. You need some power in your life. Power!"

People were called up to the front for prayer – prayer to receive the Holy Ghost, prayer for healing and more.

"When Jesus places emphasis on scripture," Said Pastor Johnny, "as in Mat 6:33, you better pay attention. In the culture that Jesus lived in, repent meant the Pharisees had to change, to admit they were wrong and Jesus was right. If something is not allowed in heaven, there is no place for it in your life."

Pastor Lynn Hill and the people of Bush Chapel AME Zion Church in winder hosted Sunday 21 October, the last night of the 7-day revival. Pastor Hill introduced Rev. Missy Iler, who spoke about comfort zones and told a story. "We were outside in a car and clearly heard a knock as if on a wooden door. There were none anywhere near." She read her original poem, The Knock.

Pastor Johnny Williams was introduced and spoke on unity in the body of Christ.

Rev Missy Iler speaking on comfort zones

Pastor Johnny Williams of Hope Fellowship

"Growing up in Commerce," said Pastor Williams, "there were several churches. None of them could even get along with one another let alone work together. Division is from hell. We can only do little pockets of God's work unless we are together. Dipping verses sprinkling: Water itself has no power. It is the blood that has power. Why do we have this division? It is because we are in the end times. Think of the work we could accomplish together if not for the division. Brother Rick, when they reject you, forgive them and move on. Do not grow weary of well-doing. In John 17:20-24 Jesus explains it: that we should be one so that the world would believe that the Father sent him. Because of Jesus, when God sees me or any blood-bought child, he sees Jesus. While we are bickering, people are dropping off in hell. Unity starts with the shepherds. If they are not together, the people will not be together."

Pastor James Walker of Kingdom Community Holiness Church in Athens was introduced to bring the word.

"Everything I do is about the kingdom," began Pastor Walker. "A divided house cannot stand. It may be sad that it is when we are in our most broken state that we can hear him the best. We're gonna have to get out of the material. The Bible says, 'For God so loved the Mercedes Benz? For God so loved the new house?' It does say, one will chase a thousand and two will chase 10,000. That means three will chase 100,000 and four will chase a million. Unity equals strength, therefore, division equals weakness. Mark 11:22-25 gives us specific praying instructions. Picture yourself on the top of a very tall building. Lean over and look down. You feel something. Praying is not just what you say. It is also what you feel. Picture it! Feel it!

"You are a man of god! If you don't go, who will?!"

"Brother Rick, thank you for all you do. For those who don't realize the importance of what you do – it's their ignorance. God bless you and strengthen you in what you are doing."

James Scott ran sound for the revival night and gave a testimony. "I get fed inside the church, but my ministry is outside the church. We need to come together as a church. It's not about me.

It's about Jesus." Mr. Scott is running for sheriff of Barrow County.
Pastor Russell Page of Kingdom Realm closed the service in prayer.

The Whole Body of Christ

Alliance is a body of believers from many Christian churches, denominations and ministries that work toward unity in the body of Christ; not all under one pastor, but as individual organ systems in a single body. We seek unity in the body of Christ, not one world religion. As the Bible instructs us, we are to work together synergistically, not against each other, nor are we to be independent of one another. Neither are we to compete with one another. No organ functioning on its own will survive very long.

This alliance seeks talented individuals to help in this mission. We are in need of resources, especially the most valuable resources – people. You don't need a degree. What is required is a true desire to serve Jesus Christ without dogmatic constraints, and that you either are now or are willing to become completely sold out to Jesus (not to this alliance nor to your denomination).

If you have the desire to glorify the name of Jesus, one of the things you were created for, and your talents are not being fully used, contact us using the information provided above. If you wish to have an article published in the BATTLEFIELD NEWS or have a comment on anything you read in this publication, contact us. Your article may be published. Be sure to keep a copy since your article will not be returned to you, nor will you receive any financial compensation for it.

Most things in this 23rd edition are not copyrighted material. All ministries are encouraged to reproduce all or any part of it for God's purposes.

If the Whole Body of Christ Alliance has not contacted your church or pastor, and your body of believers would be included, we will get to your church eventually, but don't wait until next year. The Lord may come for his bride before that. Contact us.

A Play (from pg 7)

arrest Jesus at Gethsemane (even though the Romans were not actually there in reality), and how, when He answered "I AM he," they fell down. He also testified that he finally saw that Jesus was the son of God, and that his God was the God of gods. He then sang When He was on the Cross I was on His Mind.

Pastor Linda did the narration for the play. "The devil thought he had won at first.

Christ then confronted Satan and took the keys. The devil and his demons ran away.

This ended the play and angels came and took the people in the audience two at a time to see where they would spend eternity.

Satan's demons onstage with him

Pastor Linda narrates

Two at a time the people were led in front of the cross with the Lord's image on it. They were told by the angels why he died, and that it was for them. They were led to the desk where an angel asked their name and looked to find each name in the book of life. They were then led to spend eternity with the Lord or were taken by demons to hell. After all were given the opportunity at a glimpse of heaven and hell, they came back into the sanctuary to see a movie entitled Glimpse of Hell.

The film shown in the sanctuary was terrifying, to say the very least. It seemed to be a rendering of the book by Bill Wiese, 23 Minute in Hell, a true account of a man who spent that exact amount of time in hell.

The hellish presentation at Love of God Mission was very good and it was free. It was a much more productive way to spend night in October. It was far better than most of the worldly "haunted houses" that you have to pay to get into and it was far more useful and more educational. And it was free.

“We can’t take things out of the Bible because they make us uncomfortable,” Began Pastor John Duncan. “Acts 3:26 says God sent him to bless you in turning away every one of you from your iniquities. You are not blessed until turning from you iniquities. People can’t get saved when they think they’re already saved. I know I have fallen since I’ve been saved, but I got back up; I did not continue to walk in it.

Pastor Kenny Simpson of Winder Worship

“1 John 3:4 says, ‘Whoever commits sin also commits lawlessness.’” (The sin described in this verse is not occasional sin but a consistent lifestyle of sin. Lawlessness is not the absence of law but active rebellion against the law.)

“Whatever you do, do to the glory of God. What you think about is what you will desire. Your lifestyle determines your eternity. Legalism is a form of obeying the commandments for the wrong reasons.

We see in John 14:6 that Jesus is the way, not a way. If there was another way, then Jesus was lying.

“In John14:21,” continued Pastor Duncan, “we see who Jesus says loves him, and that there is a special love God has for the obedient. Forsake all to follow Jesus. That little thing you won’t forsake is the little fox that will spoil your vine.”

People were prayed over at the end of the service.

“We confess, ‘I am saved,’ but are you filled with what you are supposed to be? We have to study the scripture and exercise spiritual wisdom. You have to act on what the pastor teaches you. We have to learn to bear fruit in

Pastor Carol Patman at Kingdom Community Worship Center

Pastor Carol walks as she preaches

“A woman sick for 12 years knew that, if she could just touch Jesus’ clothes she would be made whole. She pressed her way up to Jesus and she touched him. There’s something about when you touch Jesus. He knew she touched him. After twelve years she was healed and she paid nothing. Peter asked him he meant and said they are all touching you.

“Somebody here tonight needs a touch from Jesus. Now don’t be ashamed. He said if you are ashamed of me, I will be ashamed of you before my father.

People came to the front to be “touched,” prayed over. Some were slain in the spirit. This night of this particular revival was very inspiring.
