On Prayer XXVII

Pre-emptive Prayer (Part Three)

I was speaking in Vancouver several months ago. On my last day there, as I was packing my bags and thinking about my final session, I was also having a conversation with the Holy Spirit. It was not intercession, and it was not during my quiet time. I was simply speaking to a friend while working, sharing some of my inner thoughts with him, much the same way I might have done with my husband, had he been there. Suddenly he spoke to me. It was as natural and matter of fact as two friends sharing their hearts. "Japan is really on my heart this morning," he said. This surprised me because I guess I never thought about God as having one place on his heart more than others. I suppose I figured he had every place on his heart all the time. The phrase "on my heart" surprised me also. It was more than on his mind; this was something deeper, something very important to him. I felt as though he was letting me into his very heart. I have asked him many times to show me his heart, but I was not expecting that.

Then he said to me, "I must have Japan. It is a gate to Asia and I must have it. There is tremendous warfare over the nation right now. Would you pray for Japan this morning in your session?"

How do you like that? It was not a command, "Pray for Japan," but a question, "Would you?" He was asking me!

"Of course we will, Father," I said. "We would be honored to do that." And we did! Such an anointing and burden came upon the assembly – tears, travail, intense intercession. It went on for at least 45 minutes, at which time I had to leave for the airport. The others there continued – how long I do not know.

In that session, God brought us tremendous insight into how to pray for Japan. He spoke to us prophetically some promises to lay hold of and declare over the nation of Japan. It was glorious. I was later informed that, through some Japanese that were in that session, other believers in Japan have heard about this, and they have been very encouraged. Japan will be saved! I am not saying that Japan will be saved merely because of those of us who prayed in Vancouver. Many others, doubtless, prayed effectively and intensely for Japan. But due to the strong witness in my heart that day, I now know this about Japan. For the same reason I have great faith for this nation.

This watching and subsequent intercession was born out of fellowship with the Holy Spirit. As we spend time communing with them, which involves listening as well as talking, we grow more sensitive to his promptings.

The Old Testament words for watchman are also translated "protector," "guard," or "bodyguard." An example from my own life involves a favorite cousin I had not seen in some years. I crawled out of bed in the middle of the night to use the bathroom when a picture of my cousin came into my mind. I dropped to my knees and began to cry out, "God, don't let Marcus move! Keep him still, Lord! Keep him still! Oh God, please don't let him move! Hold him, Lord! Hold him!"

Even though I was pleading on Marcus' behalf with my words, I remember thinking, This is really ridiculous. Why am I praying this? Then the words ceased, and when they did, I could not utter another word. So I got up, used the bathroom and started back toward the bedroom. Again I fell to the floor and began to cry out with a grave sense of urgency. "Don't let him move, God! Don't let Marcus move! Stay still! Stay still!" The words came to an abrupt end. This time I thought, Oh, no! This must be a nightmare!

I had no feeling inside of me other than the need to pray. I got up and began to pace the floor, wondering what in the world this was all about. One more time I took a few steps toward the bedroom, and again I dropped to the floor. Only this time I was yelling, "Get him up, Lord! Get him to run! Run, Marcus! Lord, help him to run! Run! Run! Let him run, God! Run, run, run!" After several minutes, a calm came over me and I returned to bed for the night.

The following day, I called my aunt to see if she could help me put the pieces together about my puzzling outcries the night before. She informed me that Marcus was in Vietnam. The experience still made very little sense.

Finally a month later, my aunt called to read a letter she had received. The letter told how Marcus, who was a pilot, had been shot down and landed in a tree. He had been warned to get out of the area as quickly as possible, but explained that just a few hundred meters from the crash site, he fell into a bush. "Mom," he wrote, "it was like I was pinned down. I felt like somebody was sitting on me. The Vietcong came and were unknowingly standing on my pant leg while looking up at my parachute in the tree. They turned around and began to slash the bushes with their bayonets. It looked safe, so I got up and ran until I fell into another bush as if someone had pushed me. I lay there for a couple of minutes until suddenly I had an impulse to get up and run. I heard a helicopter so I sprinted through the wooded area, following the direction of the noise, to an open space where I was whisked off to safety. The helicopter crew said they came in response to my beeper. And yet, it had not been working when I was shot down." That, dear ones, is intercession!

Another Hebrew meaning of the word watchman is "doorkeeper" or "gatekeeper." Watchmen determine through prayer what comes into their lives, homes, churches, cities, and nations. They refuse to allow entrance to the serpent or any of his emissaries.

An example of gatekeeping for a nation began when we took my daughter Sarah on a prayer journey to Washington DC in August 1999, for her birthday. She is becoming a true intercessor. While praying with me on the Washington Mall, Sarah said, "Mama, I believe we're supposed to come back here and pray with several more teens and their parents. I feel like we are suppose to do it before The Call to help prepare the way for this event through intercession."

(The Call DC was a gathering of 400,000 youth and adults – mostly youth – on the Washington Mall in our nation's capital on 2 September 2000. The purpose of the event was to be a day of prayer and fasting to repent and pray for revival in America. Many of those attending participated in 40 days of fasting leading up to the event. It was an awesome occasion.)

Sarah repeated this 2 or 3 times over the next few months. She was very adamant, "We must do this, Mama."

I agreed and we set the trip for June of 2000. Several families joined us. A few months before time to go, I received a call from some friends in Spokane, Washington, saying they were taking a team of intercessors to DC for the same purpose as we were – at the same time! They were wondering if I would be able to join them and speak during a service on the Mall. "Certainly," I responded, "I was already planning to be there!"

When the journey actually took place, we had incredible times of prayer in our nation's capital, but the highlight was a service on the Mall on Sunday morning. As it turned out, the Dalai Lama of the Buddhist religion was scheduled to lead a service on the other end of the Mall at the same time as ours. His was for the purpose of calling over 700 demonic spirits into our nation for the propagation of the Buddhist religion.

In the sovereign plan of God, we were placed between him and the Capitol Building. We knew immediately upon hearing about it that God had placed us there as gatekeepers to protect our nation's capital from these evil spirits.

Though he tried, we were later informed that the Dalai Lama had to apologize to the people. He couldn't get these spirits summoned, it seemed. We know why. The gate was closed!

A group of intercessors in the state of Washington and a 13-year-old girl in Colorado had heard the call to go to Washington DC, and pray. Though we did not have a specific warning about what was going to happen that day, we felt the prompting of the Holy Spirit to go. The rest is history.

We must learn to listen to the Holy Spirit. He will guide us in our intercession and alert us to the schemes of the enemy. We need not allow the serpents into our gardens. On the contrary, as it says in Luke 10:19, we can "tread upon serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy."

Let's go tend our gardens!

Almighty God Refuses Access

By Mickey McConnell

Mickey McConnell

In I John 4:1 read this: "Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits if they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the earth." This word spirit can also mean spiritual or spiritually. We are not to trust every spiritual thing. We are to try every spirit or spiritual thing. The word try means, test, discern, or examine. We are to examine doctrines and every spiritual thing to see if it is of Almighty God. This is a possible task, because we have, the Holy Bible and we have the Holy Spirit. Christ said that, when the Holy Spirit was come, that he would guide us into all truth. We must pray, we must diligently seek, we must allow the Holy Spirit to guide us.

Christ, speaking to the scribes and Pharisees, said in John 8:44: "You are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father you will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is not truth in him. When he speaks a lie, he speaks of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it." Satan is a deceiver. He does not have the authority to do anything he wishes to do to people. He goes about using lies and deception. He is the master of deception and he is really good at it. This is why the Almighty tells us to test spiritual things. I guarantee you that you will be fooled if you do not test spiritual things. Many things look true, because they are mixed with truth. When Satan tempted Christ to jump from the pinnacle of the temple, he quoted Ps 91, as we mentioned a moment ago. It truly was a temptation Satan was apparently tempting Christ to show off in front of the people to demonstrate who he was, and Satan mixed enough truth with the temptation to make it seem viable. Satan also showed Christ all the kingdoms of the world and said he would give them to Christ if Christ would only bow down to him. It was a tough temptation because, as Satan said in Luke 4:6, "All this power will I give you, and the glory of them: for it is delivered unto me; and whomever I will, I give it." This word delivered means to surrender. Apparently Adam surrendered control of the earth to Satan by giving in to Satan's deception in the Garden of Eden. Satan, in II Cor 4:4, is referred to as "the god of this world." That is with a little "g," but it is clear that Satan has gained control of the world. Do you see how tempting it was to Christ to gain back control of the earth simply by bowing to Satan? Christ refused Satan, but it nevertheless was a strong temptation. Satan mixes some truth with what he says, and thereby presents to us a strong delusion that seems true. If you do not test or examine spiritual things, you will fall pray to unsound doctrine.

I am sure that there have been some fine well-meaning people, who have developed doctrine with all the knowledge they had on a certain subject. Because they did not know the rest of scripture that pertained to the subject matter, they wound up having only part of the truth. Unfortunately, when these doctrines are enshrined into a denominational organization, it is virtually impossible to ever correct them. Satan had succeeded in dividing the church into sects, as he has shrewdly used the arrangement of formal man-made organizations, such as associations and 501(c)3 not for profit corporations, to galvanize these divisions; He further solidifies these, divides by entangling each with a little unsound doctrine, mixed with enough truth to keep them fighting with each other. Do you see the grave consequences of such a deception? Satan, by division, had hindered us from becoming the glorious church of power that Almighty God desires. We, his people, need to rub our eyes with his eye salve, so that the eyes for understanding may be opened, and so that we can rise up and conquer for the sake of Christ and his kingdom. The more we lay aside our petty differences, the more we qualify ourselves to have access to his great power. The Almighty wants to grant his people access through godly unity.

and quote the word, but we must be working in love; if not, we are not walking with God. There are 6 things to remember:

1: Moses and Aaron told Pharaoh, "Thus says the Lord God of Israel, "Let my people go." God is speaking and I am his messenger, so we will both speak to the mountain. It is His command that is spoken when we speak in unison with love to the mountain. When we speak, the powers of darkness laugh. But when we speak what He is saying, it is a different story. If we say, 'Let me go,' they have to let us go if it is God's word we are speaking.

The Pharaoh said, 'Who is "The Lord" that I should obey his voice? I do not know him.' If we say, 'God says I will live and not die,' the enemy would say, 'Is that right? Who is your God? I don't know him.' They still have to obey God.

2: But God and I persisted. Strength comes because I know the King of kings and Lord of lords. I trust in his ability, not in my ability. Ex 5:3 says, '...sacrifice to the Lord our God...' My offering is myself. The enemy let me go and I make a sacrifice offering – me. He (see pg 4)

Servants Planning

This is scheduled to begin on 28 March at 1100 at Kingdom Community Holiness Church at 349 Jefferson River Road in Athens. We will be praying and going out in the neighborhood door-to-door. We will try to help the unsaved and the unchurched get into a church somewhere. We will also get to know the people in the neighborhood and pray for their needs. This is to become a regular occurrence the last Saturday of each month.

Pastor Kenneth O'Neal opened the service with a welcome to all.

Pastor James Loyless of Aliento de Vida opened in prayer.

It was also decided to do more with the youth, beginning with a youth explosion planned for April 10, 11, and 12. A march through Braselton in June was another topic that may very well take place.

The WBCA board of directors has a formal, closed board meeting once a quarter, but it has a meeting on the other two months of the quarter that is informal and open to the public. It was announced that the Servants Planning would continue at that open meeting on 21 March.

Eric Johnson of War Hill South provided the praise and worship music.

Praise and worship at the table

Dr. O'Neal quotes from Ps 24, "The earth is the Lord's, and all it's fullness, the world and all those who dwell therein."

Pastor Allen Stevens announced the offering and commented, "The Battlefield news: I'd like to see more people take part in it. I'm encouraging all the people on an individual basis. The Battlefield is made to go out to the homes of people who can't or won't go to church." Pastor Allen announced that he had appointed someone in his church as a reporter for the Battlefield News.

Dr. O'Neal read from I Tim 5:17-18, "Let the elders who rule will be counted worthy of double honor, especially those who labor in the word and doctrine. For the scripture says, 'You shall not muzzle an ox while it treads out the grain,' and 'The laborer is worth his wages.'

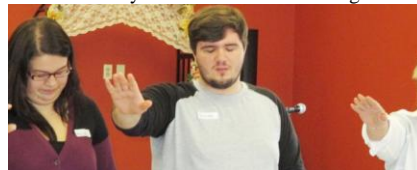

Jeff Carr of Cross of Christ

"The reverend Jeff Carr commented on the scripture from I Tim, "Let the elders... Until all these leaders consider that man (meaning Rick Hempton) worthy of double honor, we are in disobedience. We need to start a Pay Pal account for him."

Rosa Loyless collected the offering.

Dillon Hardigree led the prayer over the offering.

Herman Parks of Christ Outreach introduced the speaker.

Rick Hempton

"In June of 2014," began Rick, "a Jackson County ordinance said that, if you held a church service in your living room, a Bible study in your basement, or gathered with others to play music for Jesus in your garage, it was illegal. 3: The Pharaoh commanded the task masters not to give the Israelites straw to make the bricks with. The enemy wants us to be pressured, to not read our Bibles or pray, not to praise God. The forces of darkness want you to sweat, to be beaten down.

4: The people complained, and when they saw Moses, they said, 'Let the Lord look on you and judge because you have made us abhorrent in the sight of Pharaoh and his servants, to put a sword in their hands to kill us.' We come before the Lord and say, 'Why are you allowing these problems to persist in my life, God? When I was a sinner, things did not seem so bad. I have prayed without ceasing, I have fasted. Why is your word not working for me?'

5: Deliverance is the key. God says, not me, not Karen, 'The enemy will feel the force of my hand. God says he will force them to let you go. He will force you to go. God says, 'I Am Yahveh! I am well aware of what I promised you. I am God! I will free you from the drugs, the oppression, the depression. I will deliver

you. I will deliver your children. I will redeem you with my powerful right arm. Great acts of judgment will fall upon your enemy. I place my trust in him.

6: Do not refuse to listen to God. He is speaking with you and to you. There is too much talking and not enough listening. Do not be discouraged by the brutality. He is bigger than all our problems.

Let's all stand to our feet. You and God speak to that mountain. Step out and I will pray with you."

Pastor Betty Arnold closed the service in prayer. The April Women of Destiny will meet at 1000 on Saturday 4 April, when the reverend Regina Pruitt is scheduled to speak.

Servants Planning (From pg 4)

to us. It was decided then and there that the law would be changed because we came together in the unity Christ prayed for in John 17. We won a victory that several individual churches could never have won. The gift was not just the victory; the real gift was that we were able to see right in front of our faces why we must come together and stay that way.

"About eight months ago, a group of witches and warlocks walked into one of our churches and told the pastor, 'We got rid of the pastor before you, and the one before him, and we are gonna get rid of you!' In February the Whole Body of Christ Alliance came together with Joel Martin, the pastor of The Shield Worship Center and took back that neighborhood, and pulled down and destroyed the demonic power over that area. It took us some time and a lot of prayer and work, but we won the victory. The real gift, however was not the victory alone, but the fact that we were all shown up close why we must be in unity and stay that way. We are supposed to be an army that the gates of hell cannot stand against. There is not one church group that will accomplish this alone. There is not one mega-church that will accomplish this alone. There is not one chain of mega-churches that will accomplish this. Only the united body of Christ will ever get it done. This united body will never be, unless people are willing to do the work that it takes to make it happen. It will never come about if we keep waiting for someone else to do it. Each one of us must be willing to get up and do it ourselves, not sit by and wait for our pastors to do it. We must do it." is a body of believers from many Christian congregations, denominations, and ministries that work together for unity in the body of Christ; not all under one pastor, but as individual organ systems in a single body. We seek unity in the body of Christ, not one world religion. As the Bible instructs us, we are to work together synergistically, not against each other, nor are we to be independent of one another. No organ functioning on its own will survive very long.

The Whole Body of Christ Alliance

If you wish to have an article published in the BATTLEFIELD NEWS or have a comment on anything you read in it, contact us. Your article may be published. Be sure to keep a copy of it since it will not be returned to you. Nor will you receive any financial compensation for it. Most things in this 52nd edition are not copyrighted material. All ministries are encouraged to reproduce all or any part of it for God’s purposes. If the WBCA has not contacted your church or pastor, and your body of believers would be included, we will get to your church eventually, but don't wait until next year. The Lord may come for his bride before that. Contact us.

I knew there was a need to serve the community, and people who could not pay for the service should be able to get free haircuts. There should be free haircuts available for the unemployed, the homeless, foster kids, women at battered women's shelters.

BFN: Like Peace Place?

Shannon: Yes

BFN: So, you provide these services here at head games?

Shannon: Yes, people matter, even if they can't shell out fifty dollars. People don't need to feel bad because they can't pay that amount. This should be a place where people can come and voice their opinion and have it respected. People can express their opinions here, but they must be respectful.

Alysha, Elly, and Toni

BFN: You believe in God; what about heaven and hell?

Shannon: It's your personal choice whether you go up or down. We all know right from wrong, we all sin every day.

BFN: Do you really believe we all sin every day?

Shannon: Maybe not every day, but if you don't sin, you are perfect. When were you nailed to the cross?

BFN: Do you believe that America has turned its back on God?

Shannon: I disagree with the sitting government because of the lack of support of Israel. It doesn't take a Bible scholar to know we must support Israel. Politics and religion are dog-eat-dog. They use intimidation on people. Sometimes retreating is a strength, not a weakness because you have responsibilities. No one is pure evil, at least they are not born that way.

BFN: Where do you go to church?

Shannon: I go to Winder Wesleyan. Greg Moore is a man of God who walks the walk. I've never found a church that makes me feel the way that Greg does. He preaches to you, not at you. I don't like forcing kids to go to church. You will take nothing away if you are forced to listen to it. If the teen doesn't want to go to church this Sunday because they went last Sunday, tell them, "Okay, but you are going next Sunday." Forced participation is not participation. Forced participation is never a good thing because, then your decision does not matter. They are not talked to. See why? Before you force, have a conversation. How do you know someone in the church wasn't mean to them, or made your child feel uncomfortable?

I believe we are all equal in God's eyes; we are the ones that assign or fail to assign value to one another.

New Board (From pg 1)

Mission was elected Secretary of Ministries. Roxanne Shunk, known as Rock, served on the staff of the previous Secretary of Ministries.

Pastor Oliver Fitten

Pastor Oliver Fitten of Miracle Deliverance House of Prayer was elected as an alternate on the Board of Directors.

Pastor James Loyless

Pastor James Loyless from Aliento de Vida was the only Pastor of a Spanish ministry elected to the Board of Directors.

The Reverend Missy Iler

Missy Iler of United Front Ministries, who has worked with the Board of Directors since 2013, has been elected to the 2015 Board.

Other members of the Board of Directors include Pastor Michael Smith of Victory Deliverance Center, who serves as President; Pastor Joseph Essiful-Ansah of Christ the King Ghana Methodist Church, the Reverend Jeff Carr of Cross of Christ Ministries, Herman Parks of Christ Outreach Worship Center, who serves as Secretary of Communications, Rick Hempton, Anthony Bertsch of Jefferson Gospel Tabernacle, who serves as Secretary of Youth; Greg Brockman of North Georgia Revival Outreach, who serves as Secretary of Defense; and Pastor James Walker of Kingdom Community Holiness Church.

The Directors have expanded the closed quarterly board meetings, to monthly meetings. The quarterly meetings are still closed, but the other meetings, the 3rd Saturday of each month, are open to the rest of the body of Christ.

The elections are done in February of each odd-numbered year and the board serves a two year term. The Board is made up of nine regular members and three alternates, for a total of 12 members.

Going out door-to-door trying to get people to our church is not kingdom work. We need to be doing it, but we need to be more concerned with making disciples at some church than making converts that go to our church. We are supposed to be building the kingdom, not our kingdom.

Pastor Julio Cesar Hernandez of Iglesia Vida Nueva, young Ja'resa Walker, Ms. Ellie Cooper of Living Hope, Herman Parks of Christ Outreach, and Pastor James Walker of Kingdom Community Holiness Church

On 28 May a group of volunteers from various churches in the alliance practiced some direct outreach by going door-to-door in the neighborhood around the churches of Pastor Hernandez and Pastor Walker. Those pictured above are some of those volunteers.

Rick Hempton of Aliento de Vida and Herman Parks of Christ Outreach

Ms Ellie Cooper of Living Hope and Pastor James Walker of Kingdom Community Holiness Church

Ja'resa Walker was a very valuable team member.

The lives of many people in that neighborhood were touched. Much was accomplished by the outreach teams. The Whole Body of Christ Alliance is planning to do this again on 2 May and again on 30 May.

Statistically, less than 5% of the people in any church ever tell anyone about Jesus, or even attempt to carry out the commission given to us. Call Battlefield News (pg7) and volunteer. Don't wait to hear, "I never knew you."

Three Levels, One Message

By: Greg Brockman

Greg Brockman of North Georgia Revival Outreach

Luke 10:19, "Behold, I give power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you."

The key word here is 'power.' In this verse, the word 'power' is the Greek word, 'exousia' (exoo-see-uh). It can also mean 'authority.' So what we have here is followers of Christ that have been given authority. This authority did not come from the accolades of men, but was given by Christ himself. This authority is given to us as well. In the context of the above scripture, the disciples have been told to heal the sick, cast out devils, etc. They came back rejoicing that even the evil spirits were subject to them. And so it should be with us. We should not be palling around with evil spirits, inviting all sorts of evil into our homes. We should be serving notice that they are evicted! Luke 24:49, "And, behold, I send the promise of my Father upon you; but tarry in the city of Jerusalem until you are endued with power from on high."

Here again in the only book in the Bible written by a Gentile we have another commission, and we see another level coming, another level of ministry, a change. (Note: Religion hates change and hates anything new or different.) Jesus is the one doing the sending. That word "send" is the Greek word apostello (ap-oss-tel-o). It sounds like the word apostle for a reason. He was sending the Holy Spirit, so he (the Holy Spirit) could correctly be called an apostle that would have the gifts of the 5-fold ministry to give the church. Apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors, and teachers are mentioned in the book of Ephesians, chapter 4. It could be that those who hold these offices (functions) are actually not these things in and of themselves (apostles, prophets, evangelists, etc) but it could be that the Spirit is manifesting that particular office (function) through them or that particular gift. If this is true, then anyone can be sent, anyone can prophesy (and we are told to seek that gift), anyone can evangelize, anyone can teach, anyone can pastor. What it would require from the vessel (that's you and me) is simply to surrender and let Holy Spirit be who he is and we simply be who he makes us. It is not as much about what we do as who we are. It is not as much about accomplishments as about faithfulness.

Then we have the word "endued," which can properly be said "clothed" (Greek: enduo, en-doo-o, sinking into a garment), clothed with another power. But this time the "power" is the word dunamis. This word is often translated "wonders" or "miracles" or "mighty works." It is the basis for the English word "dynamite." The best way I have found to understand this is to point out a policeman. I obey the cop's authority because he has a badge (exousia). But if I will not comply with him because of his badge, then he also has a gun (dunamis) to ensure that I do.

Now we have another level not much achieved by man. They did have to follow Christ for him to send them with authority. They did have to obey and tarry to receive the dunamis power. Therefore, it is not without cooperation from man, but rather it is faithfulness to be a disciple (be disciple by the Lord) and obedience then to receive the dunamis power. In John 14 Jesus says that, if we love him, we will obey his commandments and that the Father will send another comforter. This is no frivolous gesture of comfort, but a promise of power, the promise of a change, another level of ministry, another level of anointing to set the captives free and advance the Kingdom of God!

In Acts 2 we see this dunamis power sent, the Spirit Apostle, the one who would not only be with us, but work through us. That level that was promised now having been achieved, Peter preached, and those hard hearts, who just 50 days earlier shouted “crucify,” were now saying, “What must we do?”

In John 14:12 Jesus said that those who believed in him would do greater works than he himself did because he was going to the Father (and the Holy Spirit was coming). Besides that, I am not going to site a promise of the next level of anointing, but only evidence. Just as the wind blows and I can’t see that it is a strong wind, but when the trees begin to pop and the shingles fly, I see evidence of a strong wind, stronger than that gentle southern breeze.

So here is the record, again written by Luke the Gentile. We have another level of the anointing that comes about in Acts 4. These same people, these same apostles who received the one sent from Christ, the Holy Spirit, in Acts 2, are seen here again.

Acts 4:29, “And now, Lord, behold their threatening: and grant unto thy servants, that with all boldness they may speak thy word.”

Acts 4:30, “By stretching out thine hand to heal; and that signs and wonders may be done by the name of thy holy child Jesus.”

Acts 4:31, “And when they had prayed, the place was shaken where they were assembled together; and they were filled with the Holy Ghost, and they spake the word of God with boldness.”

So these that had cloven tongues of fire resting upon them just days earlier, are now crying out to God for more. It may be safe to say they got a double dose of the Holy Ghost (street talk). “double portion” may be a better term for all us church folks. At this point I would have only recognized another filling, another drenching, of the Spirit, but in the following chapter we have these words coming from Peter to a man who decided to lie about some money. Maybe he was trying to fit in, or look big in the eyes of men, trying to be impressive. Here are Peter’s words: “You have not lied to men, but to God.” The man fell down dead, and a few verses later, so did his wife! Then a few verses later, we have people bringing the sick just so that Peter’s shadow could touch them and they would be healed.

Now this kind of work was not even done by the Lord, or at least we are not told of it. According to the scriptures, the manifest presence of heaven was so much, that when Peter was in prison, an angel came in and set him free. In the two previous levels I noted that being a willing disciple seemed to qualify the first level. The second level required obedience to the word and commands of the Lord. So this, if it is actually another level, seems to require willingness to be persecuted, whipped or even killed. And that with a right attitude (they rejoiced that they were counted worthy to suffer for Christ’s name).

So if you’ve read this far, you must be wondering, “What’s your point, man?” The point is simply this: if the apostles in the upper room could see by their circumstances that they needed more, if they who had cloven tongues of fire on their heads, they who spoke in tongues with no Biblical precedent, if they who were already working miracles and seeing a mighty move of God, had the wherewithal to cry out to God and say, “We need more,” then how much more do those of us who live in a land that has turned its back on God need the “signs and wonders” they cried out for back then, since we live in a seeing-is-believing society!!?

Now is not the time to be satisfied! Now is not the time to kick back and be spiritually fat and eternally satisfied! Now is the time to stir ourselves up for God! Now is the time to ignite an appetite for the things of God. Now is the time to be so hungry and so thirsty for the King of the Kingdom that we are not willing to be satisfied with a drop or a trickle. It may be you that says, “Let it be known that the God who answers with fire, He is God.” Know that the Lord has raised you up for such a time as this! NOW faith is...”

So be it.

Day of Pentecost

This year the day of Pentecost falls on Sunday 24 May. Therefore, keep your eyes open for what is planned to observe the Feast of the First Fruits. That weekend is when those in the world will celebrate Memorial Day. The Word of God, however, does not tell us to observe Memorial Day. It does tell us to observe Pentecost.

Jesus Loves Me, This I Know

By: Phyllis Hogan

Phyllis Hogan

Praise the Lord! Let’s give the Lord a shout of praise for he is good and his mercy endureth forever! He has loved us with an everlasting love.

John 3:16, “For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believes in him will not perish but have everlasting life.”

I am so in love with Jesus, now that I know he is in love with me. Perfect love really does cast out fear. God did not send his son into the world to condemn the world, but to seek and save that which was lost.

Once you have received the gift of salvation through Jesus Christ the Lord you are immediately bestowed with the gift of righteousness. All your sins have been washed away by our savior’s precious blood. God imputes to you HIS righteousness. He became sin for us that we would become the righteousness of God. This is one of the primary truths that my enemy and your enemy, Satan, does not want you to know.

We are loved! This love is good, pure, and kind. We love him because he first loved us. God’s love and grace truly are amazing. I deserved hell, but because Jesus took my place on the cross and purchased my redemption, I am free from the authority of darkness and translated into the kingdom of light, the kingdom of God’s dear Son.

God has delegated his authority to us, his children, so that we can walk in victory every day.

We overcome by the blood of the Lamb and the word of our testimony. We rejoice that our names are written in heaven and thank God continuously for the victory our savior, Jesus Christ, has won for us.

God is love. Look around and take note of all the wonderful blessings he provides every day. He loves every one of us individually. He is not willing that any should perish, but that all will come to repentance.

Wake up, Church! Blow the trumpet in Zion! Sound the alarm! We are in the last of the last days. Prophecies are being fulfilled left and right. God is raising up his people in these last days to do exploits in his name and for his glory. He deserves all of the praise. We are very privileged to be a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation to glorify the King of kings and Lord of lords, God’s son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Jesus paid a tremendous price for us when he endured the cross and paid a ransom for so many. He laid down his life because he loves all mankind and wants us to be with him forever in heaven.

If you are born again, you have been entrusted with the greatest news ever known or told. We are his ambassadors, representing him while we are on this celestial ball called earth. This world is not our home. We are not meant to be “comfortable” here. We are here on a mission from God.

We are here to be salt and light in this earth. When we trust in God with all our hearts and allow the Holy Spirit to shine his love to a weary, lost, and dying world, we become his beacons of hope, and in us all our wonderful Lord’s love and grace is personified to reach all those who will receive him as Lord.

In these last days, as it appears that darkness is pervading, just remember that you could be the only light and salt God has to reach people in your life. Light up the world with what we have freely received from the master. We are beacons of hope to a lost world. We have been commissioned with the greatest news of all – the gospel. Get bold; be brave, and tell someone about Jesus and his love today.
