On Prayer 43 Prayer Language (Part Three)

By: Mozelle Davis-Weeks

Whenever the Bible uses the phrase, "praying in the spirit," it is talking about the spirit within us praying. The Holy Spirit intercedes for us, helping us when we don't know what to pray: Likewise the Spirit also helps in our weaknesses. For we do not know what we should pray for as we ought, but the Spirit himself makes intercession for us with groaning which cannot be uttered. Now He who searches the hearts knows what the mind of the Spirit is, because he makes intercession for the saints according to the will of God. (Rom 8:26-27)

The Holy Spirit knows what to pray for in each situation. How much do we understand about somebody else's needs or problems? To be able to let the Holy Spirit intercede through us is a tremendous advantage.

A man in our church prepared to pray before bed one evening. He began praying for people in his prayer language. He began praying for another man in our church, who was suspected by physicians of having prostate cancer. As he began to pray, a completely different language proceeded from his mouth. It was clearly not his regular prayer language.

The following day the man being prayed for showed up at the hospital to be tested for prostate cancer. When the nurse asked him if he was nervous, he replied that he had no reason to be nervous because he knew he had no such cancer. Upon the completion of the test, he found that he, indeed, had no cancer.

A woman in our church was washing her dishes one morning when the Spirit of God came upon her. She began praying in tongues in an entirely different language than her usual prayer language. She felt such a strong urge to pray that she left the kitchen, knelt down and traveled in prayer for 15 or 20 minutes. The new language was so strange that she asked the Lord what it was. The Lord shared with her that the language was Swahili, an African tongue. Deeply impressed by the intense intercession, she wrote down the time that it occurred.

About three weeks later, a Christian family she knew told her of a missionary to Africa they were both acquainted with. This woman missionary had been flown to Miami with serious breast cancer. Comparing dates and time differences between America and the area of Africa the missionary had been in, they realized that the exact hour the missionary was boarding the airplane in critical condition, the Spirit impressed our sister to pray. The Missionary was healed and returned to Africa.

We are told in Eph 6:18 to pray "in the spirit, being watchful... for all the saints." As we intercede, we must watch for what God will show us.

While praying in the spirit, sometimes we'll see mental pictures of people. This is how we receive discernment of spirits, words of wisdom, and words of wisdom. We find out what is going on by this tool of the Holy Spirit. Tongues is the gateway to operating and moving in the other gifts of the Spirit. We are in the flow of God, and he can show us what he is doing.

One morning while I was praying in the spirit, a mental picture of one of the teenagers in our church came to me. She was wearing a beautiful red dress. A neighbor girl walked up to her and joked about the baptism of the Holy Spirit and speaking in tongues. The girl from our church laughed along with her. When she did, a rip showed up in her red dress. She sewed it up, but I could still see the shape of the rip.

I asked the Lord what it meant. He said, "That beautiful dress represents her witness. When she laughed along at the things of God, she rent her testimony. Although she sewed it up, that will always affect her witness to her neighbor."

That evening I went over to the teenager's house to talk to her. I told her what I saw and asked her if this had happened or was going to happen. Tears began to run down her cheeks. The night before, exactly what God showed me had happened. She felt sorry about it. Evidently, this incident offended the Holy Spirit so deeply that he wanted her to repent and ask Jesus to forgive her, which she did.

Tongues is a supernatural way to pray for people – for salvation or deliverance. The Holy Spirit needs someone to intercede through. He needs someone to pray and battle in heavenly places. When we intercede in tongues, we are coming against all the powers of Satan and breaking down strongholds. Pray in tongues constantly.

Almighty God Refuses Access

Notice in Dan 11:35, "And some of them of understanding shall fall, to try them, and to purge, and to make them white, even to the time of the end. Very difficult times cleanse or sanctify. We can draw this implication: humans are matured and cleansed through intense adversity. It is this intense adversity that forces us to either lean on Christ or rebel. This leaning on Christ is what we call trust or faith. We realize that without him, we cannot possibly complete the task and make it through. Christ was willing to go to the cross for us; therefore, he has every right to put us through the difficult process of cleansing and making us white and ready for our eternal home. Rev 21:27 has these words: "And there shall in no wise enter into it anything that defiles, neither whatsoever works abomination, or makes a lie: but they that are written in the Lamb's book of life." This is a reference to the New Jerusalem if you read the rest of the passage. It is prepared for a pure spotless unwrinkled bride; namely, Christ's bride, the church. He is preparing us to be ready to marry him, the King of the universe. Let us put on pure white raiment, his righteousness, and be thoroughly clean. "We know that we have passed from death into life because we love the brethren. He that loves not his brother abides in death" (1 John 3:14).

The early church was one and in unity, and they were powerful to the extreme. Can this phenomenon be regained? Yes! But we must be willing to relinquish our stubborn denominational pride. We must realize that we are only part of a much larger church of Yahshuah Jesus, all of which he loves dearly and equally. We, the chosen of Almighty God, must work as a team and not as presumptuous, exclusive parts. We must be lovers of truth; that is, lovers of all his truth. I am not saying it is a sin to attend a denominational church, but I am saying, that we must not embrace denominationalism.

We must become one again, through the help of the Holy Spirit. We must stand together openly and unashamed. Who is that professing Christian who would dare drive a wedge of any sort between us either directly or indirectly? Take note of such a person, and beware. Almighty God will grant us access to his unspeakable power when we have godly unity. Could it be that Yahshuah Jesus will not come back for his bride, the church until we become one? A fascinating question, don't you think?

4. Continue to believe/trust and be baptized: Mark 16:16 & Acts 8:36-38 (KJV) He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned.

(CJB) Whoever trusts and is immersed will be saved; whoever does not trust will be condemned.

And as they went on their way, they came unto a certain water: and the eunuch said, See, here is water; what doth hinder me to be baptized?

And Philip said, If thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest. And he answered and said, I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God. And he commanded the chariot to stand still: and they went down both into the water, both Philip and the eunuch; and he baptized him. Acts 8:36-38 (KJV)

5. "Confession for sinners, those in Yeshua the Messiah/Jesus the Christ"

1 John 1:9

(KJV) IF we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

(CJB) IF we acknowledge our sins, then, since He is trustworthy and just, He will forgive them and purify us from all wrongdoing.

He that covereth his sins shall not prosper: but whoso confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy. Proverbs 28:13

Confess/acknowledge: Admit, acknowledge, own up, plead guilty and come clean.

I say agree with God that sin is sin and call it what it is because, all unrighteousness is sin.

1 John 5:17 (KJV) ALL unrighteousness is SIN: and there is a SIN NOT unto death.

(CJB) All wrongdoing is SIN, BUT there is SIN that does not lead to death.

Repent/turning away from sins.

The person in Yeshua, who keeps on sinning unto death, is the sin unto death and the payment for sins unto death is the second death.

6. "How to Overcome"

(KJV) Romans 10:13 For whosoever shall call upon the Name of the Lord shall be saved.

(CJB) since everyone who calls on the Name of Adonai will be delivered.

7. “Who do you say Yeshua/Jesus is? Confess Him and He will Confess You”

Matthew 16:15-18

“Who do you say I Am?”¹⁶ Shim'on Kefa/Peter answered, “You are the Mashiach/Messiah, the Son of the Living God.” “Shim'on Bar-Yochanan,” Yeshua said to him, “how blessed you are! For no human being revealed this to you, no, it was My Father in Heaven.”¹⁸ I also tell you this: you are Kefa...

8. “Hold on to what Paul declares unto you unless you have believed in vain, the thief comes only in order to steal, kill and destroy” Corinthians 15:1-3

Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand;

By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that He was buried, and that He rose again the third day according to the scriptures: 1 Corinthians 15:1-4 (KJV) (CJB) Now, brothers, I must remind you of the Good News which I proclaimed to you, and which you received, and on *which you have taken your stand,*² and by which you are being saved — provided you keep holding fast to the message I proclaimed to you. For if you don't, your trust will have been in vain. For among the first things I passed on to you was what I also received, namely this: the Messiah died for our sins, in accordance with what was raised on the third day, in accordance with what the Tanakh says;

9. “Remember, remember” 2 Timothy 2:8

Remember that Jesus Christ of the seed of David was raised from the dead according to my gospel: 2 Timothy 2:8

Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of One, And to Thy seed, which is Christ/Messiah. Galatians 3:16

10. “Resurrection of the Dead, The first and last man Adam”

1 Corinthians 15: 45-47

And so it is written, The first man Adam was made a living soul; the last Adam was made a quickening spirit. Howbeit that was not first which is spiritual, but that which is natural; and afterward that which is spiritual. The first man is of the earth, earthy; the second Man is the Lord from Heaven.

11. “We live and defeat evil/Satan by the Word of God/Yahweh”

Deuteronomy 8, Matthew 4 & Luke 4. man doth not live by bread only, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of the Lord doth man live.

It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God. And the devil said unto him, If thou be the Son of God, command this stone that it be made bread. And Jesus answered him, saying, It is written, That man shall not live by bread alone, but by every Word of God.

Talisman Christianity

By: Greg Brockman

Greg Brockman

On Monday night, 8 August 2016, I dreamed I was looking at a platform that I was preparing to preach from. It was outside and was a very tall platform. There seemed to be a very large crowd, but I could only make out part of them. Before I went up to preach, the Lord spoke to me and said “warn my people that they are wearing the name ‘Christian’ like a talisman.” I said to the Lord, “Lord what is a talisman?” The Lord replied, “a talisman is like a piece of jewelry that a person carries around for good luck and good fortune.” So, in the dream I proceeded to take the platform and preach about talisman Christianity.

When I woke up, I realized that the word “talisman” is a word that I may have only seen or heard. I think its a book by Stephen King, but I've never read it and do not know what it means and certainly have never spoken that word to my knowledge.

So, I went to Webster's Dictionary, I mean, if the Lord is really speaking to me in a dream and giving me the definition of a word then its going to be the correct definition, here is what I found: Talisman – A piece of jewelry or stone (but can be any object) that a person wears or carries, believing it brings them good luck or good fortune.

As I dug further into the meaning of a talisman, I found that even a rabbit's foot could be considered a talisman. I also found that talismans have been used by most, if not all cultures, believing that they ward off evil spirits, bring prosperity, healing, or even romantic relationships.

As I finished the research, I entered my prayer closet with Gods Word and began to ask God to show me. “Show me Lord the difference between those who say they are Christian and are using it as a talisman and those who are really yours.” I came to a couple of different scriptures where the Lord makes a difference.

Mat 7:21 Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.

Mat 7:22 Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name, and in thy name have cast out devils, and in thy name done many wonderful works?

Mat 7:23 And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity.

As I sat in my prayer closet alone with God, I could see so clearly. So many are saying He is Lord of their lives, but so few are telling the truth. They are prophesying in the name of the Lord, speaking Gods Word, teaching it, preaching it, proclaiming it. They may have big ministries or small, they may be eloquent in speaking and great at oration. They are driving out demons using Gods Word, using the name, using the authority, saying all the (see pg 4) seeking whom he may devour. In Ps 100 we that there is power in praise. Let everything that has breath praise the Lord. He has been so good to me. I will praise him in the morning, praise him at noon time, praise him when I'm up, praise him when I'm down. I come to praise him because he is worthy. A real praiser knows he has a praise on the inside and he has to get it out. The devil will try to make you think your praise is worth nothing, but the Bible says we must worship him in spirit and in truth. Praise him tonight. Worship him tonight.

Neyda Hempton plays the tambourine

“Ps 138:2 says, ‘I will worship toward your holy temple, and praise your name for your lovingkindness and your truth.’ Sometimes people give praise to the devil: ‘The devil did this to me, the devil did that, he took this and that. I must enter His gates with thanksgiving, and His courts with praise. I will praise him when I feel like it and when I don’t feel like it. When my body is wracked with pain, I will find a way to praise him. I will read his word – that is a praise. He is worthy to be praised. When the praises go up, the blessings come down.

“Let everything that has breath praise him. You have breath. If you are cheating on God, if you have somebody on the side, you have a problem. He is a jealous God. How can you love God and not love people? There are benefits to praising him. I have died 12 times and been brought back. After all I’ve been through, he never gave up on me.

“I don’t wait until church to praise him. If I wake up at 3 am, I praise him. People might think you are nobody, but God knows you are somebody. Don’t let anyone feel like they can MOP you. They did not Make you, they don’t Own you, they did not Purchase you. M.O.P! Only Jesus can MOP you.”

right things, using all the right formulas. Wonderful works here also means miracles. They are performing miracles in the name of Christ. They are using Gods Word in such a way that it is actually working for them and they look like the real deal. Then the Lord took me to another scripture:

Mat 6:5 And when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites are: for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Verily I say unto you, they have their reward.

Mat 6:6 But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly.

Mat 6:7 But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking.

Mat 6:8 Be not ye therefore like unto them: for your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him.

Mat 6:9 After this manner therefore pray ye: Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name.

Mat 6:10 Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven.

Mat 6:11 Give us this day our daily bread.

Mat 6:12 And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

Mat 6:13 And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

The disciples, in their day, were surrounded by people who prayed. The Pharisees prayed. The Sadducees prayed. The pagans prayed. The Gentiles prayed. Some prayed only to be seen and it brought them favor in that day - talisman . Some used repetitions, repeating even scriptures over and over in order to accomplish their own will, to gain favor, to gain riches, to gain for themselves treasure here on earth.

Jesus told the disciples, “don’t pray like these other folks. When you pray, do it in sincerity with no thought of what mans opinion is.” Then he warned not to use repetitions, to repeat things over and over like that would cause God to notice them. Jesus said, “when you pray, say ‘Father who is in Heaven.’” He was saying, “you engage God when you pray.” Then He told them to engage with the Kingdom of God as their highest concern. Then, engage with the will of God as the highest order of business. Let it be complete and total surrender, complete and total abandon from the things that hold our esteem here on earth.

What I began to see was a difference and that a huge difference. Many times I have prayed prayers like the prayer of Jabez, desiring that I prosper. Yet I did not enquire of God His will in the matter. I was just seeking more for me, more for my purpose, more for my kingdom, more for my self. As I sat in my closet with God, I realized that, not only have I uttered prayers from God’s Word, prayers that seemed to line up with God’s Word, I realized that I am as guilty as any man could be for doing such things with my own kingdom of self in mind.

I reeled at the conclusion that I was coming to. Not only is the name “Christian” being used as a talisman, as a good luck charm that wards off bad stuff for its owner, but so is God’s holy Word! It has been used by me as a means of gain, and it is undoubtedly being used by others. In holy horror I sat alone in the early morning hours, realizing the implications of what this means. If this word is true, then when we pray Gods word according to our will, with no engagement from Him and His Will, a passing presumption, then we are practicing witchcraft!

I could take the closet no more and exited, saying to the Lord, “Lord, I can not levy a charge like that, and I can not preach that without proof. I must have proof, Lord, other than my own conclusions, no matter how sincere I believe them to be, and no matter how much I believe you led me to them.”

Within 10 seconds after beginning research, I had pulled up a site on the computer. It was a site not done by Christians but by new agers and necromancers. Then I pulled up another about witch craft and another.

What I found was this:

The Bible is one of the most used books by witches and warlocks to cast spells. It is considered the most powerful of all “conjuring books” by most seasoned conjurers. It is predominately preferred by most conjurers over the book of shadows, over the book of necromnicon, and over the satanic bible itself. The reason that the Word of God is preferred more is for one simple reason: It works. These demon inspired enchanters recite Gods Word over and over in order to cast spells to gain favor, to gain position, to gain authority and to gain sexual favors. I found spells that are used and recommended right from the Song of Solomon that will supposedly cause a woman to become sexual with a man. The more I researched the more I understood.

“Warn my people that they are wearing the name ‘Christian’ as though it were a talisman.” God’s Word is no good luck charm. The Bible isn’t our rabbit’s foot to ward off evil spirits and make us glimmer and shine to the world. Instead we are warned: “If they hated me, they will also hate you” and “If they persecuted me they will persecute you.”

I must simply shed this self-serving idea of God. Jesus modeled for us in Gethsemane what it means to glorify God by life or by death when He prayed “not my will but thine.” If I am only willing to reign with Him and I am not willing to lay down my life, then I will by no means reign. Even Paul and Silas counted it joy to suffer. Martyr after martyr throughout history has counted the cause of Christ worth the cost of death if necessary.

We must shed the talisman and commit to glorifying God in word, in action, in deed and in our own hearts. We must shed the god of self that has vexed us in our generation, and be willing to be whatever His desire is for us to be. If He wills that we prosper, then His will. If He wills that we pray “give us this day our daily bread” as much of the world has to just to be fed, then His will.

If we refuse now to look in our own hearts and root out the god of self, the idol of our own will, the image of god that we create as our lucky charm, then how do we know its not going to be us standing there saying “but Lord, didn’t we use your word the way we thought it would make us the most gain?”

If we, on the other hand, will crucify this selfish ambition that has vexed us, then we may be the generation of which Jesus said “they will do greater works than these.” We want our shadows to heal the sick like Peters Shadow but Peter knew full well that he was going to die a martyr and was willing. Paul did all sorts of miracles but Paul was also dead to self and ambition. The way to live is to die. The way to achieve the most for God is to put our entire lives in His hand, and that to no certain end but to an eternal end of glorious proportions.

It is not those who hang around the cross, but those who climb up on the cross that God wants. Paul said himself (Gal 2:20), “I am crucified with Christ, nevertheless I live, yet not I but Christ lives within me and this life I live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God who loved me and gave himself for me.”

The Lord asks now, “Who will take his cross and follow me?”

“If we want unity with us, we have to stay in unity with God. It’s so simple. I have been studying Solomon. He had a relationship with God. God made promises, but qualified them by saying, ‘if you worship only me.’ The Solomon got 700 wives and 300 concubines. I thought, ‘The man has lost his mind.’ You can’t keep a relationship with the Father with a thousand women and their gods.

“Rick and I have butted heads, but our relationship is based on the Lord. I have grown in God. I want to express gratitude and love for each of you because, in the beginning, we did not know each other, but now we know each other. “For 6 years now we have been working for unity. The world is ugly and I thank God for the unity. We must have tools and this Battlefield News is one of them. We don’t have to deal in the same things as the world. We just deal in love.”

Pastor Carol Patman of House of Prayer

“I turn on the TV,” Pastor Carol told the people at Kingdom Life, “and I have to cut it off because of all the hate. I have always loved everybody. I have enjoyed the speakers tonight. We heard about the voice of the Lord. About 32 years ago, I promised God that I would go if I had to go by myself. Thank you Dr. Mary for that word. God has called us out of sin. We must come together in unity because people confess

Jesus and don’t know a thing about him. We are coming together and loving each other in unity, not the kind of love like Solomon with his thousand women, but the love of Jesus. We see a form of godliness, but no power. There is something wrong when we minister the word of God and nothing happens. We are talking about this unity thing, coming together. Hell is enlarging itself every day and we have so many that want to know about Jesus. Without him, we have nothing. As I look around, it does my heart good to see us all together. So many are perishing for the lack of knowledge.

Theresa Walker, First Lady of Kingdom Community Holiness

“Unity!” began Theresa Walker at Smith Memorial. “I realized what was sacrificed for me and I wish I had never done things like disrespect my mother. I thank God for salvation and that I have been given a heart of compassion. The Bible says people will know we are Christians by our love. In Ps 133, the oil runs down Aaron’s beard. That is the beauty of unity – not that we all agree, but we are all together, not fighting. ‘My church is better than your church.’ Unity is not about that. When somebody is hurting over here, somebody over there gets with them and helps – unity. Brother Lem brought bread last night, and more tonight for all of us – unity. Ms. Mary’s House of Hope is a place of refuge for young women because the power company doesn’t mind cutting off your electricity, your water. You will be in the street if you get behind. In I Cor 1:10, Paul tells us to be united, with no divisions among us, same mind, same judgments. We want to think God thoughts, not our thoughts. Read, study the word; it is the plumbline. Let’s love people enough that we can be that light.

“John 17: that they all may be one as we are one. Let them know you are a Christian by your love. We have to come together and love on each other and on the lost. Let them know we are Christians by our love.”

Eileen Minish of the Bridge

“Ms Ellie always says we have birthed a child. All this has ever been about is love. I see how much God is doing through the Battlefield News, How much he loves us and wants us to love him and each other. Why do Lem and I never miss a night of these 7-day revivals? I never miss because I love it. It charges me up for 3 months.

“God never intended for us to stand alone,” Mary Tate told the people at Christ the King. “I prayed for company and bothered God so much that he gave me 6 women. Now I just want to be alone. God never intended for us (see pg 6) book. You can read other things, but scripture always defines scripture. When you meet a Christian, who has been one for 30 or 40 years, and they can’t describe the gospel, it will show up in the fruit they bear.

“We are in church and are born again by the blood of Jesus Christ and we get a book to read. If I have been a Christian for 10 years, and some one asks why you believe, can you tell them?”

“The lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, the pride of life; These three dive all other sins. “Eve was in a perfect place. They were perfect. They had all they could ever want with only one rule. Gen 3:6, So the woman saw that the tree was good for food (the lust of the flesh), that it was pleasant to look at – pretty (lust of the eyes), and the tree was desirable to make one wise (pride of life).

Scott Lance of NGR outreach welcomed all.

The church choir was excellent.

Rick Hempton explained about the Battlefield News and the WBCA.

Karla and Cory Sexton sing He Touched Me.

“The world system, it is as old as sin. Fun, fortune, fame, possessions, the world places wealth even above wisdom, but the Bible says that wherever your treasure is, there your heart will be also. If you save your life, you will lose it. If you lose your life for my sake, you will find it. Why does the word of God tell us not to want the world system? It is because the allurements of it, the finality of it – death. Do not love the things of the world. Why? Death!
“There are 3 things that the love of the things of the world does:

- 1: It will destroy our friendship with God. It is a combatant of the most holy.
- 2: It diminishes our fear of God. We are in a new era in society. We have moved beyond ‘God is love’ to ‘God is acceptance.’ This society says, ‘Me and God, we’re good. He is acceptance. He would not send anyone to hell.’ Does this sound like the fear of God?
- 3: It diminishes our faith in God. How? If you love the world system more than God, Peter told Jesus, when the Lord told him he had to be crucified, that it should not be so. This was arrogance. Peter denied him. The difference between Peter and Judas was that Peter repented and asked for forgiveness, but Judas went back to those he betrayed Christ to for forgiveness. We are consumed with love and relationship with the world. Where are your loyalties? Not fearing God is rebellion. Fearing God displays intelligence. Fearing God is an implication of salvation. Everyone of us has issues with the love of the Lord. The question is, what are you doing to accomplish closeness to the Lord, to say resist that and run to the Lord?”

to be alone. Adam had Eve. God knew that, when we stand alone, we can’t accomplish what we could together. We can’t win the community alone. Unity! Ms. Rosa prayed in Spanish, but we were all in one mind, one accord. No one was out of order. The Spirit of God can move.

Ms Mary Tate

“At Loganville High School, we cheered for our team. Who are you cheering for? Whose T-shirt are you wearing? What is your life representing? Who are you representing? One man will never win the war by himself. He will be killed. We will never win the community by ourselves. God never intended for us to be alone. United we stand; divided we fall. Try to combat the enemy alone? I can’t fight the devil by myself. At my home, the devils are always coming in. Everyone in church is not a Christian. Church Folk make excuses. Sometimes you need others to pray for you. If you and God are not in unity, the enemy will kill you. Rick could never have done this by himself. It took all of us – 52 churches – to help bring it about. Division was never God’s plan. One mind. One accord.”

Missy Iler of United Front

“I have been given the honor of going to Ms Mary’s house many times. Unity! The world is an ugly place right now. There is not a demon in hell I’m afraid of, but church folks scare the hell out of me. There’s a list of real ministries in this Battlefield News. There are enough in here to make a change. We don’t have to do it alone. We can call any of these listed, but they see our names in here too.

“Submission is not a word that fits in today’s society. We are not designed to carry burdens by ourselves. Every person in the body has talents, gifts, and callings. The body needs each of these to work and us to supply them. I can’t do it in the kingdom of God, but we can do it. Ego and pride will not submit. It is all about saving souls. It is not a competition. There are humble leaders in this room, who will admit they cannot do it by themselves. They will use the numbers in the Battlefield News when they need help.”

Pastor Joseph Essiful-Ansah

“Pastor James came for me tonight. Jesus prayed in John 6 like Pastor James did tonight. You ask, ‘What can I do to bring about unity?’ Don’t look to your left or right; look at yourself. Take responsibility. You will take responsibility when you stand before the judge. We can do all this because Christ strengthens us. Ask God, ‘What can I do so that they will know I am a Christian, and not church folk?’ You must wear your faith on your sleeve if you are a Christian.”

Eileen Minish of the Bridge

“If your toes have been stepped on, maybe you’re walking in the wrong place. It is our fault that God’s church is not growing. When you love someone, it is an action, and sometimes, as Christians, we don’t know what love is. We hold tight to our wallets and our emotions. “We can’t do it by ourselves. That is why Jesus sent the disciples in twos.

Pastor Joyce Heard

“God is not going to give a message for the world and have it just stay in the church. The message for the world must come from the body of Christ. Church folks are still fighting one another. Ms. Mary said that God does not want us to stand alone. I had a vision: we were all in a circle holding hands. One fell and we all went to them until they could get up. God said this is the way the church is supposed to be. If you want to see the Spirit flow in the church, there must be two things: love and unity. It is not God’s design that we fall, but that we win. Each joint should supply one another, then soon there will be no want. If we stand together, the devil cannot break through because we are a wall of Holy Ghost fire.

“There is a reason we are the color that we are. I appreciate you, your accent, the way you praise God. God created all of us to be united together. We will not say to the eye, ‘I have no need of you.’ We see the importance of each other. We are all washed by the blood of the lamb. We have royal blood in our veins, the blood of Jesus.”

“Take a look around you,” Pamela Spivey of Loganville United told the people at Unity on a mission, “You are more related to them than you are to your blood kin. In John 17, we see the words of our Lord and savior that he prayed to our Father. He prayed about us before he went to the cross. In John 17:20-23, just as Jesus is in the Father and vice versa, we are to have that kind of oneness with each other. Why? It is so that the world will have no doubt that you sent me. Know that our daddy loves us as he loves Jesus. This is where we are to find our identity. We have to cause to compare or compete with anyone. When you are all that God called you to be, it helps the body of Christ. We need more of the mindset of unity, but how do we start? Pray, Lord, give me a mindset of unity, and dive into the word again. There are practical things you can do. How can you form a relationship with a brother or sister? Pray with people. Share your testimony. Do this here tonight. It is a privilege and a joy.”

Larry Okoduwa of Christ Chosen

“You come. I have a confirmation of victory. My accent tells you I am not from here originally. Ever since this Battlefield News has been shared with me in Europe and in Africa, I have been a worker for unity in the body. It goes with 3 missionary groups to remote places all over the world. It goes to 3rd world countries, and it is like Hollywood to them. When the missionaries go there, they go to be part of the community. They plant churches and pastors. They stay until they see if the church will stand the test of time. All get the Battlefield News.

“The Father has given us talents and visions. Let our lights shine. That gift, that talent is planted in you for his people. We are precious to the Father. Recognize the authority that comes with it.

“What this Battlefield News is doing for many in the rest of the world, especially those in the 3rd world, is inspiring action. The Battlefield News has been encouraging for some time. This is part of the great commission. The Battlefield News is going there and being passed from hand to hand.”

“Rev 12:11 says, ‘And they overcame him by the blood of the lamb and by the word of their testimony.’ The Battlefield News – this is a testimony as well. This happens every month. It talks about what God is doing in the WBCA. It enables us to see what happens in unity in the body of Christ, and that God is doing something. We are in that season where Christ’s return is so soon. He comes for his perfect virgin bride. This will not happen without unity.”

Pastor Russell Page of Kingdom Realm

“My wife is pregnant again,” Pastor Russell Page told the people at Living Hope the 5th night of revival, “and it looks like it might be twins. Ms Donese, I know this is good news to you.

“I must be submissive to God fully. There are some things going on in the country. We can blame our neighbor; we can blame our leaders, but it is the church. The first place God looks is at the leaders in the church. Jesus said, ‘Be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.’ What must we do? I Chron 7:14, ‘If my people...’ the world? No, the church. What is wrong with the world? The church. The closest thing the world has to Jesus is you.”

Pastor Allen Stevens of Living Hope

“I was a lay preacher,” Pastor Allen Stevens told the people at Carter’s Temple, “and I had a motorcycle wreck. I was in the ICU for 30 days. Six months later I started Living Hope Christian Fellowship with William Pirkle.

“One Sunday I saw this little guy in the back and he asked if he could talk to me for 5 minutes. Two hours later we were still talking. We saw the Whole Body of Christ Alliance and the Battlefield News birthed.

“Luke 18:27, ‘The things which are impossible with men are possible with God.’ I will share two thoughts. The first is that salvation with a holy life is impossible. The second is that it is possible with God. It takes a long time to learn the first one. Blessed is the man who learns both of these. A babe in Christ has no conception of this. He is honest, sincere, and eager, and discovers that he cannot live a holy life. We fail miserably at this. Often this is as far as Christians go. If they cannot accept the impossibility of it, they will remain in this state. This is the state of most of the church – come to church twice a week and act holy. Something more is needed – the supernatural power of Jesus Christ. Your Christian life is to be a series of impossibilities. All of Christianity is God’s power. Our human side is feeble, but the divine side is power. You must become utterly powerless (II Cor 12:9, my strength is made perfect in weakness), love each other (see pg 8) is a body of believers from many Christian congregations, denominations, and ministries that work together for unity in the body of Christ; not all under one pastor, but as individual organ systems in a single body. We seek unity in the body of Christ, not one world religion. As the Bible instructs us, we are to work together synergistically, not against each other, nor are we to be independent of one another. No organ functioning on its own will survive very long.

If you wish to have an article published in the BATTLEFIELD NEWS or have a comment on anything you read in it, contact us. Your article may be published. Be sure to keep a copy of it since it will not be returned to you. Nor will you receive any financial compensation for it.

Most things in this 69th edition are not copyrighted material. All ministries are encouraged to reproduce all or any part of it for God’s purposes.

If the WBCA has not contacted your church or pastor, and your body of believers would be included, we will get to your church eventually, but don't wait until next year. The Lord may come for his bride before that. Contact us.

Wisdom Missed (from pg 6)

that is what we can do. We will need God's help so we can love the unlovable."

Pastor Tony Bertsch of Jefferson Gospel

"God must come first. Of the 12 spies sent out into the promised land, only two said what God wanted was possible. God is awakening the body of Christ for unity. It seems like the devil's works are greater than what God is doing. Ten men could not see the vision. My question to you is: Do you have the vision? Some say this unity thing is not working. It is working! Just because the walls seem impenetrable and there are giants, does not mean we cannot carry out the mission. I may not see God doing it, but he is doing it. He is the God of impossible. After 40 years, God raised up a generation who believed God. The ten naysayers perished, but the 2 who saw the vision entered into the land. People who never had a vision of unity are getting the vision. Whose report will you believe? God wants unity in the body and he will change the hearts of people. He is the God of the impossible."

Herman Parks of Grace Glory

"During the past week I had a stroke and spent time in the hospital. God has given me rhema. Thus, 'Why call me good? One alone is good, that is God.' Either call me God or stop calling me good.

"The path to righteousness is the same for Jews and for Goyim. The Lord gave us faith – his faith. Now we have the imputation of faith. Just like there is no difference between the Gentile and the Jew, there is no difference between healing and salvation. The Greek word for both is the same, sozo. We don't need to say, 'If it is your will, Father, I would get saved.' Therefore don't say, 'if it is your will, I would be healed.' At Grace Glory School of Ministry, we know that evil still exists still on earth through Satan, but God has given the deed back to us through Jesus. One of the last deeds of Jesus on earth was to pass his authority on to us to enforce the will of God through prayer."

Jody Bennett of Unity on a Mission & Secretary of the Battlefield News

"I never heard about unity in the body of Christ in church." Jody Bennett told the people at Kingdom Comm Holiness the last night of revival. "In the last three years I have learned about how important it is. Eph 4:4-6, 'There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called in one hope of your calling; one Lord, one faith, one baptism; one God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all.' Everything fits together like a puzzle. We have well over 50 ministries in the alliance.

"Bibles are illegal in China, but we ship equipment to China. So we started putting Bibles in the crates. I am so inspired by everyone in the alliance. We are connecting all of our skills and gifts God gave us. That's what it's all about."

Ms Ellie Cooper of Living Hope

“That one chance – I saw that with my husband.” Ms Ellie Cooper told the people at Kingdom Community Holiness. “He was not a church-goer. He said, ‘I’ve always known God. What’s the big thing about Jesus?’ I don’t remember exactly what I said, but it worked. “We birthed a child. It is almost 6-years-old. In Sunday school we are studying Mat 5:15-16, and with that in mind, let’s look at the Battlefield News. Between now and 2020, something will happen. Read the Battlefield News and find out what.

Roxanne (Rock) Shunk of Unity on a Mission
 “I don’t know what people think disciples look like,” Rock Shunk began, “but look around you because here they are. It’s boiling down to us, people. Jesus said you will know them by their fruit. To be able to get to the souls of the people, we have to get past the flesh. The flesh is how you think. The Battlefield News is going to Africa. Do you know what that means? It means different principalities and different warfare. We can fight it on our knees. We can fight it with singing. Music and singing is powerful, y’all. “The people on the streets have seen all kinds of phony Christians, y’all. Y’all are the last men standing. You are the ones who know what unity is. Saints have to quit getting offended because a bunch of offended Christians are not going to be effective. Jesus is coming to get us out of here, but in the mean time, he wants us to stand, to witness, to tell people about him. “If we are going to storm the gates of hell, we gotta get after it.”

As a child of God, praise is our expression to God. Praise moves the hand of God. Psalm 9:1, “I will praise thee, O Lord, with my whole heart, I will show forth all thy marvelous works. I will be glad and rejoice in thee: I will sing praise to thy name, O thou Most High.” My Praise Is My Weapon. In Psalm 9:10, Those who seek him, God will not forsake.

Pastor Connie Gross & the reverend Arthela Ramey

“Heb. 13:5, ‘Let your conversation be without covetousness; and be content with such things as ye have; for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.’ Jesus won’t forsake his people. It doesn’t mean we won’t have battles, but Jesus will be with us. Praise Him because he is God and God almighty. We should praise the Lord anywhere. True praise is a relationship with God. When Saul began to chase David,

God delivered David because David loved to praise. When our enemies are after us, all we need to do is a little praise. Praise moves the hand of God. We don’t have to fight the battle by our selves. In the midst of the storm praise him; you will confuse the enemy. Just praise and let your praise be your weapon. David called upon God for help and for strength. Psalm 18:1-3, ‘I love you, O Lord, my strength. The Lord is my rock, my fortress, and my deliverer, my God, my rock in whom I take refuge, my shield, and the horn of my salvation, my stronghold. I call upon the Lord, who is worthy to be praised, so I shall be saved from my enemies.’ David is describing what God is to him. God delivered him out of the hand of Saul. David could have killed Saul but he didn’t. All of us want God to help us when we are going through something. When he does we need to realize God brought us out. David uses praise as his weapon. When things go wrong, we need to realize praise is our weapon. Just praise. Praise him during the rough times. Praise is the authority God gives us. Whatever you’re going through, God will fix it if you just praise him. Praise defeats the enemy. When we praise, God will hear your cry. Praise causes Satan to flee. Some of you don’t know how powerful your praise is. Where there is no praise, there is no victory; little praise, little victory; big praise, big victory. Have faith and know that he is God the one that can do all things but fail.”

Pastor Arthela Ramey opened, and praise and worship was by the praise team. The scripture was read by the minister Mary Tate, and prayer was by the Rev. Rose Williams. Welcome was done by Tabbie Reese. A poem was read by Ms. Ethel Jackson. There was an invitation to Christian discipleship. What a blessed time they had in the Lord with awesome worship and praise. The word was so anointed and so encouraging. Our speaker Connie Gross, pastor of Carter’s Temple AME Zion Church, lit up the house.

“John 1:1,” quoted Mary Tate, “ ‘In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. The same was in the beginning.’ Authority! The Word of God, it has force and it has strength when we use it. It carry’s power!

volunteers her time twice a month for Miss Mary’s House of Hope.

Grief and Loss are touchy subjects. No one likes to face grief and loss. As we began our counseling session, Missy opened with prayer, then Sonya Richi did a prophetic dance for us to Let Your Heart Beat Again.

Missy Prays as Sonya dances

Missy mentioned before she started, “There is a spirit that is running free in the world today; a spirit of Judas, and it is toxic. People are like crabs in a barrel. When you are on the bottom they love you, but when you try to get out, they try to hold onto you for dear life. Align yourself with people who want to go where you are going; not with those who are stagnant and are not going anywhere. They will hold you back. Rebuke the attacks, and allow those people to go.

“Grief and Loss: there are different ways of grieving. We grieve over the death of a loved one. We grieve the death of a family member, friend, pet, or the baby lost in an abortion. We grieve the loss of our youth, as in a midlife crisis; we grieve our faculties or part of us, mental or physical, as in amputees or handicapped, our health (extreme sickness), job (means of support), or a dream for the future (a father that was never there or a dream that never came true, like for a little girl, career, etc). We grieve over separation: moving, close friends moving, separation or divorce of spouses or parents.

Ms Sonya's dance

Daneele Dunn

"No one is immune, but we each respond in our own way. It is a natural and healthy human response that is a part of life. Everyone will experience some type of loss. The process is painful. The process is personal. The process is progressive, it involves mixed feelings. The stages are, shock, denial, fantasy, grief, anger, and living with memories. How do we heal? Understand the process of human grief, as well as God's provision and concern for you. Then we must identify loss, talk about that loss, give yourself permission to grieve, accept that loss is normal. It is just another season in life. Nurture your relationship with God; don't run from him, even if you are angry at him, but run to him. Allow the Holy Spirit to work within your heart. It is a process that we all will go through anytime we suffer some type of loss in our life. "Jesus said, 'I come that you might have life and have it more abundantly.' Trust God to see you through in your time of grief and loss."

It was a very informative class and Missy did a wonderful job.

(a disciple) of Messiah, we hope that they would be mature in the Kingdom of God. There are, unfortunately, too many who are 60, have been in Messiah for decades, but are still babies in the Lord. They are babies because they choose not to grow. They are still on the milk.

Pastor James Walker opened in prayer

Horace Bradley sang

"I have known Joyce since she was born." Doris Hood said. " Now she is 60. And in 1960, One Fish Two Fish, Red Fish Blue Fish was published, Frank Sinatra began his own label, 4 black students had a sit-n in Greensboro, Nixon & Kennedy had the first televised debate, JFK was elected president, and John Kennedy Jr was born."

Doris Hood

There are others who were not raised in church, who did not come to Messiah until later in life.

This reporter did not make a commitment to Messiah until the age of 33, in an encounter with the Living Messiah.

The gift opening

When we reach a certain level of maturity in the Lord, we realize we are not truly mature; unless we compare ourselves to others or to our selves. But the Bible says, when we compare ourselves to ourselves, we are not wise. We are to compare ourselves to Yeshua the Messiah. When we do this, we see that we are not mature. At this point, the mature thing to do is to strive for another level of maturity – of commitment. There are so many things this reporter though he knew about the Lord, but he discovered he was wrong and had to change his thinking. This says that there are things now held as true about Adonai that will be discovered in the future to be erroneous. This reporter does not have the whole truth, just as not one pastor, not one church, not one denomination have the whole truth. This will not change until we come into real unity.

The Essiful-Ansah family sang in Fantse and in English

Pastor Joseph closed in prayer

We reach a level of maturity where we realize we are no longer serving God because we are trying to get into heaven or because we are motivated by rewards we may receive. We know that we will love him and serve him even if we end up in hell at the end of it because He is worthy.

Was working behind the counter making sure the brownies and iced coffee were served with perfection. The iced coffee was the best this reporter ever tasted. John Wayne Maddox even allowed a photograph of his brownie with ice cream on top.

The whole atmosphere was charged with anticipation and Holy Ghost sparks. The testimonies were given, the John Wayne Maddox stirred the atmosphere with song. Ms Mary joined him in singing and just praising the Lord.

The people at the coffee house consisted of a variety of worshipers and talented. There was singing by John Wayne Maddox, Frankie Wilson, Daneele Dunn, and Bobby Allen. Ms Sonya Richi performed a prophetic dance as Daneele Dunn sang.

a church. Ms Mary opened the coffee house. "Don't say you've had a good week if you haven't. God is trying to get the body together in unity because miracles happen when we are in one accord. Do you want the devil to tremble? Come together in unity.

Pastor Gloria Farmer opened in prayer

Michael Reardon sang, "I stayed on the cross and whispered your name. Now will you whisper mine."

"Jonah was thrown off the boat," William said. "He was trying to run away from the creator. I see preachers forget who the creator is. Jonah was never in the belly of a whale; it was a big fish. A whale is not a fish."

Neyda Hempton shared her testimony

Herman Parks sang and gave a pop sermon

Stacy Sanders spoke

"When the Lord tells you you're going to the other side, get in that boat and go to the other side. If he takes me, he will take me all the way to the other side."

physical prison, but certainly from their imprisonment by sin, ignorance, rebellion, and bad decisions. Jesus is the source of this freedom. It is our responsibility to share the love of Jesus with everyone including prisoners. Society may intend prison to be a place of punishment, but God can use it as a place of refinement and transformation. He does not give up on those in prison, but pursues them in love. One such ministry, Fly Right, Inc. from Meridian, MS, has been successfully transforming lives within the prisons in the central and southern parts of the USA. On September 8th in Easley SC, founder Jim Harris, Jerrilyn Johnson, Tracy Crosby, Mike Basmajian, David Widding and many others from Potters Clay Fellowship gathered for an evening of fellowship, testimony, and praising the Lord. There was also a silent auction fundraiser with many collectables, jewelry, and goodies. The delicious dinner of Chicken Marsala, crossiants, salad and cheesecake was prepared by Brother Bill Poston. Praise and worship was led by Mike Basmajian. Proceeds from the event went to prepare to go into the Greenville Detention Center Jail on October 22. Their SC Team is still fundraising & recruiting for more teammates & volunteers, so please contact them if you're interested or check them out on Facebook at www.flyrightinc.org.

News

Books and clothes Needed

Christ the King needs Christian books. For those of you who have Christian books that you've read or that you are willing to donate. Please call the Battlefield News, call Pastor Joseph at (706)254-5531, or take them by Christ the King. In Addition, the people at Christ the King are gathering clothes to send to the people in Ghana. The need there is very great. Please drop off any clothing at Christ the King, beside Quality Food in Winder. "I was naked and you clothed me."

Revival Schedule for 2016

24-31October: Tent revival at Badcock in Commerce. Watch BFN for details.

Intercessory Prayers

Herman Parks of the WBCA board of directors has published prayers at the website www.beattlefieldnews.net/intercessoryprayer. Not everyone is an intercessor, yet we all find ourselves in that situation in our lives.

Anniversary Celebration

Pastor Joseph Essiful-Ansah and the people of Christ the King Ghana Methodist Church will celebrate their 5th anniversary at 1100 on Sunday, 6 November at 208 C North Broad Street in Winder. All servants of the Most High God are invited and encouraged to attend.
