On Prayer 54 Divine Intervention (Part Two)

By Mozelle Davis-Weeks

When God spared Nineveh, Jonah became angry because God made him look like a false prophet. What Jonah prophesied did not come true until a couple centuries later. But God spared Nineveh at this time because they fasted and prayed. Prayer and fasting move God to change his mind.

This reminds me of the passage in Joel 2:12-14:

“‘Now, therefore,’ says the Lord, ‘turn to me with all you heart, with fasting, with weeping, and with mourning.’ So rend your heart and not your garments; Return to the Lord your God, for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger and of great kindness; and he relents from doing harm. Who knows if he will turn and relent, and leave a blessing behind him?”

Why sit around feeling condemned and discouraged? God may turn, and relent, and bless you.

Prayer causes supernatural intervention in the destiny of individuals and the history of nations. Joel 2:17 says, “Let the priests, who minister to the Lord, weep between the porch and the altar; let them say, ‘Spare your people, O Lord, and do not give your heritage to reproach, that the nations should rule over them. Why should they say among the peoples, ‘Where is their God?’”

We can pray, “Spare your people. Spare America. Spare Israel.” The fact that we can pray according to scripture for God to spare nations shows that he will intervene in the events of mankind.

Habakkuk 3:2 is a very interesting passage:

“O Lord, I have heard your speech and was afraid; O Lord, revive your work in the midst of the years! In the midst of the years make it known; in wrath remember mercy.”

Even though everyone else comes under judgment in a church, you don’t have to. Even though everyone else comes under judgment in a city or a nation, you can escape it. Noah (Noah) did. God put him on an ark. God always has an ark of safety for those who seek him. You have a perfect right to say, “In wrath remember mercy.”

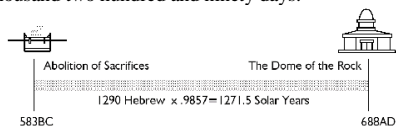

Abomination of Desolation

By: Shane Haley

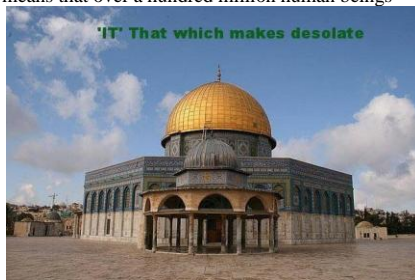

Shane Haley

Dan 12:11 (KJV), “And from the time that the daily sacrifice shall be taken away, and the abomination that maketh desolate set up, there shall be a thousand two hundred and ninety days.

Note: Biblical day = year prophecies have a beginning date in history specified by context, and now we can see their historical fulfillments. In Mark 13:14 the abomination of desolation is referred to as an “it,” not a him. This dome, a Muslim structure, has now stood on God’s temple mount for over 1300 years. There are now over 1.2 billion in that false faith. So Mohammed could certainly qualify as the false prophet of Rev 19:20. Best estimates are that 10.15% of Muslims worldwide are of the militant Islamic strain. That means that over a hundred million human beings are, to a greater or lesser degree, caught up in the world’s most dangerous fanaticism. Since there are no less than three to five million Muslims in the US, we can reasonably conclude that somewhere between 300,000 to 750,000 American Muslims support the terrorists.

Garden of Life

By: Wade Carey

Wade and Elisa Carey

“Uh, no. I suppose not.”

“Neither does Jesus!”

“I suppose I never thought about it that way,” Henry admitted.

“I’d like to also point out,” Jerry continued, “the fact that there have been three interesting biblical arks in the past: Noah’s ark, which provided salvation from the wrath of God in an overbearingly evil world; Moses’ little ark on the Nile River when he was a wee lad in Egypt, which saved him and ultimately protected God’s message of redemption from the wrath of man; and the ark of the covenant, which held the actual Ten Commandments; thereby protecting God’s fellowship and communion with Israel.”

“Of course, I was already familiar with Noah’s ark, as well as the ark of the covenant. But why are we talking about arks?”

“It’s because my overall message centers around faith in Jesus Christ, who is a type of ark. Think of it like this: When Jesus rose from the grave on the third day, evil was defeated and the world began to die. That’s right – the world is absolutely dying. One day this evil world will be dead and gone. What I want to demonstrate to you is that all people need to get aboard the only ark of salvation available – Jesus Christ – while you still can. Like I said, the clock is ticking on this evil world. Whether you like it or not, God will destroy it one day and replace it with new heavens and a new earth.”

“Sheesh, you sure are direct in your opinions, Jerry.”

“Does that bother you? I thought we covered this when we first met.”

Henry thought for a moment. No, it doesn’t bother me. Actually, it’s a breath of fresh air in an otherwise politically correct environment today.”

Jerry nodded. “I told you when we first met that my style is to both encourage and warn others about the spiritual decisions they make. Christianity’s claims are both substantial and unique, so I think it behooves everyone to at least examine these claims with an open mind and an open heart – not anger.” “Okay, fine,” Henry said. “So how about we save the rest of this faith talk for another day? You have my head spinning.”

“Actually, dinner will be ready soon,” Helen added. “But first; Henry dear, please tell Megan to c’mon down.”

Henry nodded, then moved toward the stairs.

“Listen, Jerry,” Helen continued. “We have a small Christmas gift for you. I’d like for you to open it before dinner.”

“Oh, how wonderful,” Jerry said. “That sure sounds good to me. Coincidentally, I also have gifts for each of you.”

Helen grinned. “You shouldn’t have.”

Henry walked over to the stairs and up three steps, calling out to Megan. To his surprise, Megan was in the landing area upstairs, within earshot of the conversation going on in the living room.

“C’mon down, sweetie,” Henry said.

“I’m coming, daddy,” Megan said.

She walked briskly downstairs. Megan seemed far less broody than usual. This pleased both her parents and Jerry.

“Who goes first?” Jerry asked.

Helen raised her hand. “Since I brought it up, you have to open our gift first.”

“Bring it on!” Jerry said.

Megan walked over to the tree, searched through the pile, and pulled out a medium-sized box, which was wrapped in some festive Frosty the Snowman paper. She handed the package to Jerry, all the while sporting a wry grin.

“Why thank you, milady,” Jerry said.

“You’re welcome, Mister Jerry,” Megan said.

Henry and Helen both quietly bristled at seeing a genuine show of respect from their unpredictable teenage daughter.

Jerry opened the box. “So what’ve we got, here?” he asked. “Oh cool! It’s a blue, Jefferson Dragons hoodie, and a red, Dragons knit cap. Thanks folks – I love them. I’m sure I’ll use this comfy-looking cap on my bald head this winter.”

The Johnsons all smiled.

“Ah – so let’s see what santa brought for the three of you,” Jerry continued. He reached into his backpack, which he had brought with him when he arrived late that afternoon. Jerry then handed each of them a nicely wrapped gift. “Go ahead and open them,” he insisted.

Henry, Helen, and Megan complied.

Unity in the Body

By: Missy Iler

The reverend Missy Iler

When my people speak in one language as one people, nothing they plan will be impossible. (adapted from Genesis 11:6.) When warfare enters in, we need to know there is someone standing with us. We all know that, if God has given us a vision, the enemy will try to steal it. He will try to enter in. I want to know there is someone who will go to battle with me, who will go back to back and fight the good fight. Acts 4:32, And the multitude of them that believed were in one heart and soul: neither said any of them that ought of the things which he possessed was his own; but had all things in common.

We have the same Father. Jesus died for us. He arose. We are all one family. With great power the apostles gave witness to the resurrection power of the Lord Jesus and great grace was upon them. We are all flawed and we all need Jesus. We need people we can be accountable to. The most misused scripture in the Bible is Mat 7:1, "Judge not lest you be judged." Correction is not judging. We have to be accountable to someone. Accountability is so important in the body of Christ. Do you love me enough to correct me? Do you love me enough to hold me up when I fail? Do you love me enough to pray for me?

Unity causes no lack. Does anyone have a need? Why does the body of Christ have a need? It is because they can't get it together. Whatever we have we are to share. When we allow God to use us and not be selfish, God will bless us. When we reach out and meet other people needs. God has called us to be Deborahs and step out. There is a time, a place, a season. There is an anointing that God has equipped us for. Our footsteps are ordered by the Lord. Can we be Elijahs. Can we speak that we are children of the Living God? Can we pull our needs down from heaven? There is power in vision, life in unity. Just love each other, love your brothers and sisters in Christ. God has called us to love and to submit to one another and each other's gifts.

Luke Warm Leftovers II

By: Jerome Applegate

I don't want to be lukewarm. Lukewarm people tend to choose what is popular over what is right when they are in conflict. They care more about what people think of what they do (like going to church and giving) than what God thinks of their hearts and lives. Jesus said in Luke 6:26, "Woe to you when men speak well of you, for that is how their fathers treated the false prophets." He said in Rev 3:1, "I know your deeds; you have a reputation of being alive, but you are dead." I don't want to be lukewarm. Lukewarm people don't really want to be cleansed of their sin; they only want to be saved from the penalty of their sin. They don't genuinely hate sin and aren't truly sorry for it. They're just sorry because God is going to punish them.

I don't want to be lukewarm. Lukewarm people hardly ever share their faith with their neighbors or friends. They don't want anyone to feel uncomfortable by talking about private issues like religion. They don't want to make people angry. A young woman I witnessed to once told me in a very angry voice, "I'm not a Christian. I'm a Baptist." The truth is she might not have known anything about Jesus, but she knew she was not where she needed to be with Christ and that she did not know him at all (Baptists usually are Christians) and it scared the daylight out of her. We all tend to manifest fear through anger. James 1:22 tells us "Do not merely listen to the word, and so deceive yourself. Do what it says."

I don't want to be lukewarm. Lukewarm people do not live by faith; their lives are structured so that they don't have to. They don't have to trust God if something unexpected happens – they have their bank account, their life insurance, and their 401K. The truth is, their lives wouldn't look much different if they stopped believing in God. "Fool! This night your soul will be required of you. Then who will get what you have prepared for yourself?" (Luke 12:20)

I don't want to be lukewarm. Lukewarm people may drink and swear less than average, but besides that, they aren't really any different from your typical unbeliever. They equate their partially sanitized lives with holiness, but they couldn't be more wrong. We attempt to serve leftovers to a holy God – leftover money, leftover time, leftover love. My concern in writing this is that it may only evoke fear and guilt. Personal experience has taught me that actions driven by fear and guilt are not an antidote to lukewarm, selfish, comfortable living. I hope that you realize instead that the answer is love.

I don't want to be lukewarm. I have said this, but unfortunately, I find myself falling into just that on too many occasions. I don't want to fall into lukewarmness ever. But, you see it is not just our actions that God looks at; it is also our heart. Paul said beginning in Rom 7:14, "For we know that the law is spiritual, but I am carnal, sold under sin. For what I am doing, I do not understand. For what I will to do, that I do not practice; but what I hate, that I do... Now if I do what I will not to do, it is no longer I who do it, but sin that dwells in me... O wretched man that I am! Who will deliver me from this body of death? I thank God – through Jesus Christ our Lord! So then, with the mind I myself serve the law of God, but with the flesh the law of sin." You see, we all sin. We all fail God, fall short of his glory, but I truly hope you can see the difference.

To call someone a Christian simply because he does some Christian-like things is giving false comfort to the unsaved. But to declare someone who sins "unsaved" is to deny the reality and truth of God's grace. Grace does not help, however, what is wrong with our hearts. Grace does not cover lukewarm, complacency. If we have as much of God as we want for right now, a reasonable portion of God among all the other things in our lives, this is not covered by the grace. Those that should be the most afraid are those that are lukewarm, and know it, and don't care.

The thing is, when you're in love, you will do whatever you have to for the one you are in love with, even things you didn't know you could do. Please, read this until it sinks in. It is vital and there is absolutely nothing more important. Here goes: Are you willing to say to God that he can have whatever he wants? Do you believe that wholehearted commitment to him is more important than any other thing or person in your life? Do you know that nothing you ever do in this life will ever matter, unless it is about loving God and loving the people he has made? If the answer to those questions is yes, then put your actions where your mouth is. True faith means holding nothing back; it bets everything on the hope of eternity.

"II Chron 7:14, "If my people... will heal their land. There are six things in scripture that will help you in this.

"1: Be doers of the word, not hearers only. We are at the closing hour. God is working on his people. Jesus is our common denominator. It is God's people who will serve in unity. Are you walking what you're talking? Are you bringing people to Jesus, or keeping them from coming?

"2: Do you care? Do have a burden for lost souls? You have not because you ask not.

"3: Humble yourselves and pray. God's people will learn humility connected to the power of God. When Jesus prayed, he started, 'Father, I thank you.'

"4: Pray. I Thes 5:17, It is God's people who will bombard the throne of God with prayer. Do you pray 30 to 35 minutes? Pray 5 times and give up? No, you pray as many times as it takes for as long as it takes. Ask God to save all your family members. Don't give up.

"5: Seek his face. Love him first. Tell him how you love him. Thank him.

"6: Turn from your wicked ways. Some compromise the word. He who covers his sin shall not prosper. I will carry his word. Some have been complacent, not as near to God as they once were. The spirit of God will not always strive with man. Quit gossiping and talking bad about your pastor. Say, 'I love you' more than you have before. We don't need negative, we need positive in the church.

"God says, 'then will I hear from heaven, forgive their sin, and heal their land - churches all of it. If someone is lost, there is only one destination for them. My heart breaks for them. What about those dying without Jesus? The laborers are few. That's you and I."

“We see in V₁₉₋₂₀ that Paul began to preach immediately. In V₂₃₋₂₄ Jesus had already told Ananias this was coming. When the love of God hits, things change. Saul himself became a disciple. For three years Paul did not touch flesh and blood. But we skip sanctification and go to service. Don’t try to deliver yourself; let the Holy Ghost deliver you. “We try to stay strong for everyone. God creates us to be women, not to carry the world on our shoulders. Things will always come out in the open. We get burnt out. If we take a break, it doesn’t mean we are weak. We get burnt out because we refuse to take a break. If we don’t take a break, God will allow things to happen so that we have to take a break. Your car might get repossessed. We get sick, lose sleep, our mind out runs our body. When you have the greatest victory, that is when the enemy comes in the most. Whatever you are gonna preach on, that is what you will struggle with that whole week.

“Elijah had one of his greatest victories, then had to go hide. He had to take a break. Jezebel was out to get him. He had to hide in a cave and rest (I Kings 19:9-18).

As Women, we hide in our own caves. This is what happens when you refuse to take a break. God hid Elijah from the enemy and fed him. He has hidden us and fed us too. God protects women. Ministry is a 24/7 thing. I could get distracted and one of my girls slip off into hell. But is we refuse to rest, thing get dysfunctional, and we cannot see our way out.

“God asked Elijah, ‘What are you doing in the cave?’ Has God ever asked you what you are doing in the cave? Times and seasons change. People and ministries change. If you stay when God tells you to get out, you will become stagnate, stinking, and dead. Just because you have to hide for a time does not mean God has left you. When God told Elijah to come out of the cave, his rest was over. When we refuse to rest, this is what happens. Don’t quit, but take a break.”

Division Stole the Vision

His job is to send disunity and discord, to conquer and devour. If we hold steady, keep the vision (there is only one vision. It is from Christ), we can cross the bridge between now and the future. There was times when I lost my vision. Without vision, we are doing things like robots. Everything we do needs to be done with purpose and in unity. Our visions are alike. What do you do, when the vision comes under attack? I check myself.

The Whole Body of Christ Alliance is a body of believers from many Christian congregations, denominations, and ministries that work together for unity in the body of Christ; not all under one pastor, but as individual organ systems in a single body. We seek unity in the body of Christ, not one world religion. As the Bible instructs us, we are to work together synergistically, not against each other, nor are we to be independent of one another. No organ functioning on its own will survive very long. Division Stole the Vision die, but God can and will resurrect it. I lost my vision once. I sat down and I regrouped. I thought about the original vision to win souls and how many people would suffer if I allow myself the division.

“You could be the problem, the one with two visions. I am asking God to give us clear revelation like David. With clear revelation he won the battle.

Donese Mercaldo, “Just because you went to the altar once, doesn't mean you can't go back again.”

Michael Bennett of Unity on a Mission initiated the offering for Battlefield News “Acts 15:36-39, who are we trying to take with us in the vision? Mark was the cousin of Barnabba. Even family have to be let go if they are causing a problem.

Letting people go is the hardest. If they don't want to go with you, with God, they have to go. Be honest: who is it we are still trying to hold on to? Even family, if they were going to cause disunity, they have to go. I can't let me, my mother, father, sister, brother, anyone destroy unity. It will destroy the vision. They will cause the boat to sink. God is calling us forth. Unity is needed in this hour like never before. I can't make you stay and make you comfortable. Unity with two is better than disunity with 50. It ain't about the numbers. There are just a few of us, but there's love up in here.

Let them go and they will come back at a different season. Don't hold on to the people. We cannot afford the ship to wreck. If they return, welcome them, but for now, I have to do what has to be done. Leave them but keep loving them. This is a heart thing. God already set up everything. It's already in place.

On the other hand, they may come off the street. They might become one of the most powerful street evangelists ever.

Paul chose Sila. It doesn't matter when entered the race, as long as you enter the race. Paul knew that, if you were a believer, it did not matter if you were a Jew, a Greek, or a female.

Pastor Matt Mote of Fisherman's Net opens in prayer

"David strengthened himself in the Lord his God. There is more here than just words. If you will keep going, you will win. David asked Abiathar the priest to bring him the ephod so he could inquire of the Lord. Blue prints on the shelf don't work, but if You use them, there is action. He asked God if he should pursue the Amalekites. God told him to do it and he would recover all. The book of James says faith without works is dead. If I don't do anything with this, it's dead. David and the 600 came to the Brook Besor. Two hundred stayed there with the supplies. David and the 400 found a hungry Egyptian. How many people do we pass by every day that are in need? When David returned from having recovered all, the selfish in the 400 that went with him did not want to share the spoils with the 200 who stayed with the supplies. David did not allow this.

Jeff Ortiz of NGR School of Ministry spoke on unity in the body of Christ.

First Lady Sherry Angel of Kingdom Life Refuge initiated and prayed over the Battlefield News offering.

"The Lord says you will recover all. In Acts 4, Peter and John were on trial before the Sanhedrin. Those on the Sanhedrin spoke with a carnal mind. Their spirits needed resurrection. Peter and John were told never to preach in the name of Jesus. But they remembered all that Jesus was persecuted for. "They prayed in one accord. They got together in unity and connected in unity, allowing each part of the body to do what it is supposed to. Get ready to take those blueprints off the shelf. Boldness is not a carnal thing. We are here because we are uniting."

“Acts 2:38-41, without unity, how many would have been saved and baptized? Now it’s about one person or two a month. Acts 2:42-44, they were constantly together and had all things in common. John 14:12, the things he did, we can do too, and even greater. Acts 2:46-47, What happens when you don’t go to church? It’s kind of like the flashlights, only the batteries run out. Satan eases in as soon as the Holy Spirit is out. We must exhort each other, lift each other up. When you praise God giver of the word. David knew he had no good heart. He said, 'Create in me a clean heart and a right spirit.'

"Mark 16:19, He sat down at the right hand of God. That is the Law. We think the law of God is a lot of rules. The difference between rules and the law is that the law has benefits. For instance, the law of gravity – you drop it, it falls down. There seems to be an exception: a 747 weighs 600,000 pounds. It will go up because of another law, the law of lift. The airplane must be going 160 mph. If it is flying and goes less than 160 mph, it will fall. It flies every time. You just have to steer it. It is the law. In the U.S, 140 million people say they know Jesus. The keys to the kingdom of heaven: these are the laws. The plane flies because it obeys the law.

"He is coming back for a church, not a ministry – the church. We struggle, but in the WBCA, at the tent, there were over 50 miracles. The plane is flying. We have people that have divorces, yet the Lord hates divorce. We see in Deut 28, that if we follow these, we will be blessed coming in and going out. Why? It is because we follow the laws. God has to be first, not me. I have to kill my flesh over, and over, and over. How many times do I have to die? Every time I do, I get a new strength. It is the law of sowing and reaping. My wife cleaned somebody's house. What she sowed, she will reap.

Religion has a purpose, but consuming you is not its place. The word 'gay' means happy, but the homosexuals took my word. 'What church do you go to?' That's religion. It is a constant dying, but you will be able to fly. Are you gonna believe it? Are you gonna follow it?

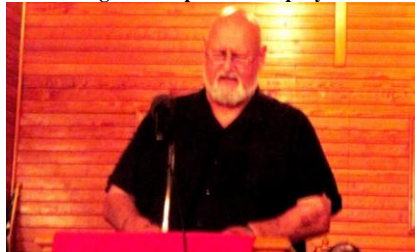

"God is not playing. He is a God of righteousness.

He says in Is 66:1, 'Heaven is my throne and the earth is my footstool.' The Bible says if we love him, we will keep his commandments. Is 66:2, 'But on this one will I look: on him who is poor and of a contrite spirit ("I'm Apostle so-&-so") – contrite! Oh the games we play with God. Is 66:3-4, no body wants to tell you. I will tell you. You are going to hell. God will not have his miracles and your mess in the same place. That junk we did in the alliance last week ain't gonna get it this week. It's time to clean it up. The board is gonna be picking the speakers, they will not be picked at random. We get so caught up in it that we fool our selves. Judgment begins in the house of God. I'm not trying to be politically correct, but biblically correct. That Jezebel, do-it-my-way spirit, must go. Every homosexual is messed up, and we congratulate them on their way to hell. How can I not have a problem with somebody who is living in sin? I remember all those homosexuals in our old church with that feminine, sissy spirit. The devil does not care how he gets you, as long as he gets you. In this walk, you are gonna go through something. You are gonna rip right out of yourself. It's called sanctification. You know you hate looking at porno, but you go do it. It is because somebody you are supposed to pray for is in it. If you do it, then the devil gets two-for-one.

"The law says the Boeing can't fly, but the other law says the Boeing can fly."

Rick Hempton, founder of the WBCA, initiated the offering for the speaker and prayed over it.

Pastor Allen Stevens of Living Hope and one of the founding fathers of the alliance provided the closing comments.

Pastor James called those who need prayer to the altar.

Eclipse occurs in the exact same area of the sky as the Rev 12 Sign and, as millions of people look to the sky, they will be given a short glimpse of this sign as it moves into its final stages of fulfillment. The 21 August 2017 eclipse will take place in the constellation of Leo, next to Regulus, the brightest star in the constellation of Leo. Regulus is known as the King star, and a double conjunction of Jupiter, the King planet, and Regulus in 3 BC, is part of the sign or "star" that brought the Magi to Bethlehem. The shadow of this eclipse will divide the United States almost perfectly in half. This eclipse will take place exactly 33 days before the great sign of Rev 12 on Sept. 22 and 23rd. the number 33 represents promise in Biblical numerics.

Luke 21:25 "And there will be signs in the sun, in the moon, and in the stars; and on the earth distress of nations."

Back in 2007 I was not sure what the Book of Revelation, and the book of Joel meant regarding the sun becoming black as sack cloth, and the moon blood red or like blood. I researched the meaning, and what I found was this: they were referring to solar and lunar eclipses. I did this research years before I found out about the blood moon tetrad of 2014 and 2015. If you are interested in learning more about the blood moon tetrads, and what they reveal, please see the March 2017 edition of the Battlefield News. Last year I went back to my notes from 2007, and I was astonished at something I wrote in the notes, something I didn't even remember writing. I wrote this in my notes: "this event will be a sign of the last days". This statement was in regard to the following verses:

Joel 2:30-31, "And I will shew wonders in the heavens and in the earth, blood, and fire, and pillars of smoke. The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and terrible day of the Lord come."

Revelation 6:12, "And I beheld when he had opened the sixth seal, and, lo, there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood;"

Shane Haley

Last week I put the date of the last blood moon in the 2014 - 2015 tetrad, 27 Sep 2015, into a time duration calculator. Next I put the date of the great Revelation 12 sign, 23 Sep 2017, into the calculator. The number of days between these two dates turned up a very interesting number, there will be 726 days between these two events. Through my study of the Revelation 12 sign, this number 726 had a very important meaning to me. We are told in Revelation 12:5 this child will be caught up to Heaven, "And she brought forth a man child, who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron: and her child was caught up unto God, and to his throne."

The King James, and most other English translations of the Bible translate the Greek word "Harpazo" (pron har-pad-zo) into two English words "caught up". The Greek word "Harpazo" just happens to be number 726 in the Greek dictionary of the Strong's Concordance.

Strong's G726 - harpazō
Pronunciation här-päd'-zō

The KJV translates Strong's G726 in the following manner: catch up (4x), take by force (3x), catch away (2x), pluck (2x), catch (1x), pull (1x).

Outline of Biblical Usage

- 1 to seize, carry off by force
- 2 to seize on, claim for one's self eagerly
- 3 to snatch out or away

The Latin translation of the Bible translates the word Harpazo as Rapturo, where we get the English word Rapture.

I want to point something out to anyone that hasn't read my two posts detailing the Revelation 12 sign, and 23 Sep 2017. Most people believe Revelation 12 is referring to Jesus, because verse 5 states this child will rule with a rod of iron. Let's take a look at what Jesus told John to write in his letter to the Church of Thyatira:

Revelation 2:26-27, "And he that overcometh, and keepeth my works unto the end, to him will I give power over the nations: And he shall rule them with a rod of iron; as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken to shivers: even as I received of my Father.”

Finally, I would like to share a dream I had three years ago. A perfect stranger, that knew nothing about me, asked me a question during a casual conversation. The stranger asked me this question "have you had your calling yet". I replied "no, I don't think so" Then he said this to me "you are going to have a dream, you won't understand it completely at first, but you will in time, and I want you to call me and let me know when you have this dream"

This statement took me by surprise. Never before, and not sense, had anyone said something like this to me. The strange thing about it was the fact that I didn't think he was crazy. Instead, I believed what he said to me. I actually took his name and number down, then I went home and told my wife about the encounter. That night I got on my knees and prayed about it, asking our Father to reveal the dream to me, if this was truly a Word from Him. I went to bed, the next thing I knew I was waking up from a dream at 5:40 in the morning. This dream was the most profound, and realistic dream I have ever had in my life. To say the least, I was in absolute awe of what had just happened.

In this dream I was with a group of people, it was made known to me that I didn't even know most of these people in this group. We were in what appeared to be a gigantic maze, which I believe represents this world or this age. We were desperately trying to find our way out, but this seemed impossible because there were yellow arrows on the floors and the walls pointing in all directions. We didn't know which arrows to follow, or which arrows to avoid following. We were walking as a group, and I saw an opening. I left the group and walked to this opening. I looked through the opening and realized this was not the way out, so I turned around and rejoined the group. I believe this represents the belief I had that something would happen at the end of the Blood Moon Tetrad cycle. After I rejoined the group, we continued to make our way through the maze, still not sure what direction to take. Then I heard a female voice that came from overhead. I never saw where or who this voice came from; I only heard the voice make this statement, "Look at the train." When I heard this, I looked to my right and saw a huge silver bullet train. This train was in the midst of several other, older, rundown trains. The size and beauty of this train overshadowed the other trains. I got so excited at the appearing of this train, that my spirit was overwhelmed with absolute joy. Next, I turned to tell the others to look at the train, because in the dream, I felt like they didn't hear the voice announcing it's arrival. Before I could get all the words out of my mouth, the train was going over head. It sounded like I was standing under a trestle, with all the clanking and vibration of an actual train. This part of the dream was in high definition with surround sound, it felt real. The train was going up at an angle toward the sky. Suddenly, a huge door in the sky opened, it was more like a huge two-door gate. The train headed toward the opening, and we, the group, followed the train into the sky toward the opening.

As soon as we passed through the threshold of the door or opening, I was instantly in an immense room. I say room, but I saw no walls, only people, a lot of people. As I was looking around taking it all in, I heard a familiar song begin to play. I couldn't tell exactly what song at the time, but I knew it was a Duran Duran song. As this song played, I saw some of the people form a single-file line and exit this room with a blank look on their faces. I researched the song a couple of days later and found out the song playing was titled Hungry Like the Wolf. The reason I didn't recognize the song immediately was because the main chorus didn't play, only the beginning of the first verse leading up to the main chorus. Think about what I just said: the song Hungry Like the Wolf started playing, and people in this room left with a blank look on their faces.

Immediately after this happened, I look down and I was holding an I-pad in my hands. There was a picture of Adam and Eve on the screen, and words began to scroll across the top of the screen. Here is what they said, "Sometimes, just like Adam and Eve, people are told lies, and made to believe." Then I woke up from the dream. I got up and pondered the dream for a while, then I laid back down. When I closed my eyes, I heard the audible voice of God say "Write it down." So I jumped up and began writing the dream down. The last thing I wrote was "believe", because once I read that word, the dream ended. I have written that word hundreds of times, but that morning I was shown something, the word believe is three words in one: "Believe Lie Eve" Eve was the first human to believe Satan's lies, and judging from how many people left this place, she was no where close to the last. God also reiterated to me what scrolled across the I-pad screen when He brought into my remembrance the verses below:

II Thessalonians 2:10-12, "and with all unrighteous deception among those who perish, because they did not receive the love of the truth, that they might be saved. And for this reason God will send them strong delusion, that they should believe the lie, that they all may be condemned who did not believe the truth but had pleasure in unrighteousness."

At the time this happened to me, I believed the Rapture doctrine was false doctrine. Unless someone could give me insight, I took this as a rapture dream. Also at the time of this dream, I had not discovered the Revelation 12 sign that will appear on 23 Sep 2017, and I had just been introduced to the Blood Moon Tetrad, and had very little knowledge of it's significance. Now I understand the Blood Moon Tetrad. The 21 August 2017 eclipse, the 13 September 2015 partial eclipse, and the 23 September 2017 Great Sign, are very significant, and seem to be pointing to something very big. I will let you decide that for yourself. Don't forget what Jesus stated in Luke 21 when he was asked this question, "what will be the signs of your coming and the end of the age?" Jesus was very specific about one thing, He said there will be signs in the Sun, Moon, and Stars. These signs seem pretty clear to me, something like the earth has never witnessed before, is about to take place.

The stranger that told me I was going to have the dream, was very specific about one thing: he said I wouldn't understand the dream completely at first, but I would in time. The part of the dream that gave me the most trouble was the symbolism of the train, what did this train represent? After I began studying the Revelation 12 sign that takes place next month, I decided to go to a few Christian web sites that help interpret dreams. Again, I was in awe at what I discovered. The two interpretations that kept repeating were as follows: a train in dreams represents either the Church or the rapture. That is exactly what my study of the Revelation 12 sign was pointing to - the rapture of the Church. I even found a poem that I will end with. The other thing is how after the dream, my life would follow the dream in detail. I took wrong turns in my study, represented by the arrows. I thought the rapture could happen in September 2015, represented by the opening I went to in my dream, only to realize it was not. Now I am telling people that I don't even know to look at the Revelation 12 sign. I believe the Revelation 12 sign could very well correspond with the rapture of the Church, or some other huge event taking place on Earth during the same time. Now I will end with the poem I found while looking up the meaning of a train in dreams. The train in my dream was in the midst of other trains, keep this in mind when you read what the poem says about the train as compared to others.

There is a train coming, and will pass by.

A time appointed, for you and I.

It's sounding its whistle, will you hear?

The whistle, an alarm, telling you it's near.

Will you get on? Will you realize it's here?

The train from Heaven, suddenly manifest and dear,

Here a while, opposed by many.

The traditions of man, it won't have any.

It's a train different, but of the same form,

A different set of tracks, not the norm.

A definite direction, a purpose in mind.

To serve Him, and Him only, what a find!

Will you see this train, will you hear the alarm?

Sadness and joy, not a toy, nor a charm.

As suddenly it came, only suddenly depart,

The question is, will you be a part?

Friends (the Outhouse Five). The concession stand was provided by Hawg and Chicks BBQ. Their Barbecue was excellent. Everyone seemed to enjoy it. The desserts were compliments of Winder Church Of God of Prophecy and Pastor Debra Williams. Everyone seemed to enjoy their day hanging out at the Jamboree with family and friends. It was old fashion fellowship. Every group did a great job. Clarke Kesler was having issues with his voice that day. So Cheryl Sumter of Divine Three asked Bishop Kevin Magnus to pray for Clarke. They gathered around him and Bishop laid hands on him and prayed. Clarke was healed and he sang with Clarke Kesler and The Outhouse Five. They did an awesome job. God is a miracle-working God to those who believe.

With the music playing, prayer over people begins

How many of us want to have a true experience from God? How many of us need healing? If a complete stranger from another state came to your church, or your ministry, or your area and confirmed things that only you and God had talked about or maybe you have never told anyone, would you believe that God sent that person to confirm your thoughts and feelings? Do you believe he will heal you, especially on certain specifics that pertain to you? Jesus loves us so much that he would send just that someone to bring word to his people. From experience, this reporter believes that the prophet Jordan Brice was sent to educate, edify, encourage, and confirm the body of Christ.

Prayer over Rock Shunk

Prayer over many

The prophet prays over people

“God has something to say,” the prophet said. “The people have to get sick of not being fed. I’m tired of church as usual. I’m finished with passive Christianity. God has called us.” The prophet held up a bracelet with the word “Forward” stamped on it. “Move forward do not regress, is what this bracelet stands for. I am selling them for $1.00 to help Forward Attire. It’s time we start supporting the people in the Kingdom! There is a strong sense of jealousy in the body of Christ. We will support Jay-Z and Beyonce but not our brother? Really?”

That is so true. We must help support one another. Several healings took place those nights, both physical and spiritual. Jordan Brice emphasized prayer and how important it is for the church to pray for healing, to believe in healing. He stressed that it was not he who was doing the healing. He shouted many times “Pray Church, pray!” They prayed for lungs, for backs, for necks, knees, and ears. One man who could not hear the sound of his voice with the microphone, after anointing and diligent prayer, could actually hear better then when he came. He fell out in the spirit for a long period and his back was prayed for. The Awakening 101 Conference was held at Real Identity Ministry in Commerce, and was hosted by Dustin Bonds and Matt Mote of Fisherman’s Net. The conference began on Thursday 10 August, and continued through 11, 12, & 13 August. The primary speaker/teacher was the prophet Jordan Brice-Conway from Woodbridge, Virginia. The conference consisted of day classes from 1000 to 14:30, as well as an overflow service nightly, at 1900 (7 pm). Praise and worship varied from each day/night, but was primarily performed by Steve Combs, Tommy Jones, Ashley Bonds, Jeromy Marsh, and Matt Mote.

A man whose hearing is restored passes out in the spirit

Praise and worship continues

This reporter was only able to attend Thursday and Friday night, however, the impact of the teaching, of witnessing the healings, and the prophetic word given on those two nights was powerful and rewarding. The prophet Jordan Brice also had a word for the Real Identity Ministry and for the North Georgia region concerning fall harvest crops and some targets to aim for in our region.

It All Starts at Home

(Awakening 101)

By: Jo Ann Frey

A three day conference entitled “It All Starts At Home Awakening 101” was held at Real Identity

Dustin Bonds & Billy Angel being studious

Ministries in Commerce, Georgia on 10-12 August. The day sessions were held from 1000 to 1600 (4pm) or later, depending upon the moving of the Holy Spirit. Each day prior to the first session beginning, worship and praise was led by Ashley Rane Bonds. The Outpouring services were held each night at 1900 (7pm) with worship and praise also being led by Ashley Rane Bonds prior to the night service beginning. The conference was presented by the apostle Dustin Bonds, Pastor Matt Mote, and the prophet Jordan Brice-Conway.

Class in session

The sessions were as follows:

Thursday 10 August

- How Does God Speak? (the prophet Jordan Brice-Conway)
- Citizenship (Pastor Matt Mote)
- Gifts of the Holy Spirit (Jordan Brice-Conway)
- Kingdom Dynamics (Pastor Matt Mote)

Friday 11 August

- Household, Roles (Pastor Matt Mote)
- Household, Rules and Responsibilities (Pastor Matt Mote)
- What is the Prophetic? (the prophet Jordan Brice-Conway)

Saturday 12 August

- Five-Fold Ministry (the prophet Jordan Brice-Conway)
- Strategic Ministry (the apostle Dustin Bonds)
- Prophetic Worship (Part 1 and 2) (Jordan Brice-Conway)
- Healing Ministry (Jordan Brice-Conway)

Jordan Brice-Conway taught on the various ways to hear God speak. He began his session by using the Scripture of Acts 17 to link to his other Scriptures. He stated that God is the best communicator in the world and the heavens, and impressed upon the attendees not to limit God in anything. God speaks to us through His mouth and the mouths of others. He speaks through the following:

- Prophets and the prophetic (Old and New Testament)
- Sinners (Old and New Testament)
- Children (Matthew 21:16)
- Physical and accidental acts (1 Samuel 15:27)
- Animals such as Balaam's donkey (Numbers 22:28-30)
- Our heart and mind (Psalm 27:1-8)

-Dreams and visions (Genesis 37:1-9)

-God's Word (Acts 2:14)

Jordan stated that God speaks the language of eternity and that conviction deals with the matter of the heart. Just as with Joseph and his dreams, we may have to go through a process before our dreams come to fruition.

The prophet Jordan Brice-Conway, Pastor Matt Mote, & Bonds

In Pastor Matt Mote's session, he taught about the Kingdom Of God. He utilized the Scripture in Luke 12:31-32, which states "But rather seek ye the Kingdom of God; and all these things shall be added unto you. Fear not, little flock; for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the Kingdom." He discussed the Kingdom of God, citizenship, principles, laws, callings, gifts, ministries, and offices.

He stated that the body of Christ needs to understand their position in the Kingdom of God. We are seated in heaven with Jesus to have a heavenly view with an eternal perspective. With this comes the need and mandate to know our real identity, authority, and purpose. Real identity, authority and purpose are the foundations on which we build. They are each shown, established, and confirmed in the completed work of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

He stated that the Gospels show us the progression from servants to citizens, to friends, and to children through our relationship with the love of God the Father, grace through the Son, Jesus Christ, and fellowship in the Holy Ghost.

The prophet Jordan Brice-Conway taught on the Gifts of the Holy Ghost, using I Corinthians 12:1-31 as his starting point. He stated that some men moved in the demonic, cursing Jesus and not able to say anything good about Him. He also said that there is a counterfeit power from hell, but that the supernatural power of God will always triumph over demonic power. Acts 16:16-18 reflects this knowledge. I Corinthians 12:4-11 tells us "There are different kinds of gifts, but the same Spirit distributes them. There are different kinds of service, but the same Lord. There are different kinds of working, but in all of them and in everyone it is the same God at work. Now to each one the manifestation of the Spirit is given for the common good. To one there is given through the Spirit a message of wisdom, to another a message of knowledge by means of the same Spirit, to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by that one Spirit, to another distinguishing between spirits, to another speaking in different kinds of tongues, and to still another the interpretation of tongues. All these are the work of one and the same Spirit, and he distributes them to each one, just as he determines."

The Spiritual Gifts:

- Word of wisdom
- Word of knowledge
- Faith
- Gifts of healing
- Working of miracles
- Prophecy
- Discerning of spirits
- Diverse kinds of tongues
- Interpretation of tongues
- Gift of helps
- Gifts of leadership

In Pastor Matt Mote's session, he discussed Kingdom Dynamics. He high-lighted the topics on Church offices (Bishop and Deacon), Ministries (Reconciliation-sinner to Saint and Service-Saint to service), Law and Worship (Promise and an oath by God—Covenant-the blood covenant of God and Christ), the Sanctuary, the Priests, the Offerings, the Commandments, and the Citizenship. He also discussed the 12 Spiritual Principles of Relationships as follows:

- Honesty
- Hope
- Faith
- Courage
- Integrity
- Willingness
- Humility
- Brotherly love
- Forgiveness
- Perseverance
- Spirituality
- Service

He also discussed the Boundary Laws of sewing and reaping, as well as responsibilities, power, respect, motivation, evaluation, being pro-active not reactive, envy, and activity. Pastor Matt stated that access to our Father God and our inheritance in him is declared, documented, and signed by the blood of the perfect Lamb of God, Jesus Christ.

The following day, Pastor Matt Mote taught on the Household Roles, Rules, and Responsibilities. He stated that the Word of God shows us the Biblical roles, rules, and responsibilities for spouses, parents, and children. God instituted the family and home. He stated that there are truths pertaining to the relationships.

Pastor Matt ended his session stating that it is the responsibility of parents to keep our households and family in order as God has commanded us to do in His Word.

The prophet Jordan Brice-Conway taught the last session of this day, What is the prophetic? He stated that the Spirit of prophecy refers to the Holy Ghost, and that every Christian that has the Holy Ghost inside of them can prophesy. He also shared that if we submit and yield to the Holy Spirit, the gift of prophecy can work through us. He cited I Corinthians 14:24 "But if an unbeliever or an inquirer comes in while everyone is prophesying, they are convicted of sin and are brought under judgment by all," He relayed to us that this Scripture reflects that the spirit of prophecy brings salvation. He also cited I Corinthians 14:3, which says, "But the one who prophesies speaks to people for their strengthening, encouraging and comfort." The functions of prophecy are as follows:

Edification - Build up and strengthening

Exhortation - A calling near, encouraging, rallying together, bringing unity and going deeper in God.
Comfort - An ability to comfort and console
Informational - Added to you

The sessions on the last day of the Awakening 101 conference were conducted by the prophet Jordan Brice-Conway. His first session was entitled The Five-Fold Ministry. This session was very in-depth in explaining the qualifications and functions of the Apostle, Prophet, Evangelist, Pastor, and Teacher. Some of the information he presented for these five offices is as follows:

Apostle - Predates the world. A General of high military rank. Versatile on land or other places. Can walk or move in every grace. Supernatural encounters. God marks his ministry by signs and wonders. Sent by Christ. Christ validates an apostolic ministry. Establishes culture of the kingdom of God.

Prophet - Existed before the church. Ruled over kings. Under the authority of the Apostle. Lead and guide in church. Preach and teach. Able to teach someone to hear the Word of God and articulate it back to you. Every Prophet is an Intercessor. Strong zeal for holiness and purity. Loves presence of God. Inclined to supernatural activity. More aggressive. Carries the sword of the Spirit. Confronts others.

Evangelist - Preaches and sometimes teaches the Word of God. Has some or all of the gifts of the Spirit. Signs and wonders sometimes follow him/her.

Pastor - Shepherd of his/her congregation. Preaches and teaches the Word of God. Has some or all of the gifts of the Spirit. Signs and wonders sometimes follow him/her.

Teacher - Teaches the Word of God and brings revelation of it to individuals or groups. Can have some or all gifts of the Spirit.

Jordan stated that Jesus walked in every office of the five-fold ministry. He was called Rabbi, Teacher, Evangelist, Pastor, Shepherd, and Prophet. He moved in the prophetic. He was also the Apostle of Yaweh for his 12 disciples.

The apostle Dustin Bonds discussed Strategic Ministry. He stated that the word "ministry" means to minister unto. He used Matthew 20:28 as his starting point. This Scripture tells us, "just as the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many." He stated that Apostolic means "sent us." I Corinthians 12:28 says, "And God has placed in the church first of all apostles, second prophets, third teachers, then miracles, then gifts of healing, of helping, of guidance, and of different kinds of tongues." Acts 13:5 also states, "When they arrived at Salamis, they proclaimed the word of God in the Jewish synagogues. John was with them as their helper." Dustin said that Luke 5:10-11 tells us, "and so were James and John, the sons of Zebedee, Simon's partners. Then Jesus said to Simon, 'Don't be afraid; from now on you will fish for people.'" So they pulled their boats up on shore, left everything and followed him." He stated that Strategic Ministry long-term must be planned and carefully designed. It is not established for just then, but for movement toward the future.

The last session of the conference was conducted by The prophet Jordan Brice-Conway. He presented Healing Ministry. The two parts of this ministry are a grace that comes upon you for praying for the sick and afflicted, and the gifts of healing. James 5:13-20 states, "Is anyone among you in trouble? Let them pray. Is anyone happy? Let them sing songs of praise. Is anyone among you sick? Let them call the elders of the church to pray over them and anoint them with oil in the name of the Lord. Is anyone offered in faith will make the sick person well; the Lord will raise them up. If they have sinned, they will be forgiven. Therefore confess your sins to each other and pray for each other so that you may be healed. The fervent prayer of a righteous person is powerful and effective. Elijah was a human being, even as we are. He prayed earnestly that it would not rain, and it did not rain on the land for three and a half years.

Again he prayed, and the heavens gave rain, and the earth produced its crops. My brothers and sisters, if one of you should wander from the truth and someone should bring that person back, remember this: Whoever turns a sinner from the error of their way will save them from death and cover over a multitude of sins." Jordan stated that there are two purposes for healing, one being for the saints, and the other for the world of evangelism. It is every believer's right to be healed. Sickness is illegal in the children of God. Isaiah 53:5 assures us, "But he was pierced for our transgressions, he was crushed for our iniquities; the punishment that brought us peace was on him, and by his wounds we are healed." Christ was punished for us. He knew no sin, but He took our punishment. Healing is a part of the salvation package. God's Word heals. All healings are not spontaneous or instant. Some are progressive and slow. Unrepentant sin and unforgiveness can stop healing. Some diseases are demonic and happen because a door to the enemy has been opened. The prophet asked if anyone needed prayer or healing. He asked them to come up to the front and asked for volunteers in the class to pray for them under his direction. This session closed the three-day conference. It was a great opportunity to learn, to practice, and to grow in knowledge of God and His Word.

Wade's new book

That's a wrap! Top of the Mountain is now done. It's stats break down like this: 75K+ words, 195 passages of scripture covering all 66 books of the Bible, and it took 4.1 months to write. The book is based on what real love is, what prevents real love in our lives, and what we can learn from God's version of it. It's also a love story, which covers 75 years and two people, Rachel and Harvey, who learn many things along the way. After several rounds of edits, an autumn release is still on track. Oh, and it's time to go celebrate in my traditional way - a hot dog at Costco. You just can't beat that deal.

Holy Fest

On Saturday 28 October another Holy Fest will be held at Victory Deliverance Center. Bring the kids. There will be games, fun and food. It begins at 11:45.

for Leaving Our Legacy

www.womenterprises.com

A Snippet of my chapter in Leaving Our Legacy I am the 4th generation of my mother's bloodline and this line has been cursed until now. God has been faithful and true to His word in Exodus 20:5-6. My journey, However, began before I was formed in my mother's womb. God said he knew me and he had a good plan for my life. He had a plan for my family, and on 18 Feb 1980, he began allowing the external environment around me to shape, make, and mold me into the leader he had chosen me to be. He caused my dad to work together for my good. Generational curses are real! In my chapter in this anthology it is entitled From Pain 2 Purpose, and I take you on a journey of self discovery through one of the darkest seasons of my life. It was full of suffering, but through my pain I discovered my purpose.
