Called to do the Work

By: Richard Dean

Christian family, you are called to do the work of the kingdom of God. It is not just the pastors that are called; it is Ms Gina, who sits right there in the front row every Sunday; it is Jeffery Johnson, who has prayed so many times for God to use him; it is 17-year-old Maxine, who never seems able to sit still through the entire service because she is so bored hearing the same old thing. It is every one of us that is called.

We are called to do the work that is required to make sure that the lamb that was slain receives the reward of his suffering. What is this reward? The reward is you, and me, and the owner of the store across the street, and the woman with all the kids that lives three doors down from you. The reward is for the people who are not saved to become saved, for the Lord to come to know him. We are called for this – all of us. (see pg 3)

It's an Inside Job

By: R. D. Hempton

"Acts 26:12-18, don't pat yourself on the back," said Pastor Roger Williams of Inner Fountain Ministry and Church in Winder, "because it was God. He wants all the glory. You study the word for yourself. This is not a season of condemnation; this is a season that God is lifting up his people.

Pastor Roger Williams of Inner Fountain

"Man looks at the outward appearance, but God looks at the inside. It's an inside job. Jesus appeared to Paul and told him he cannot fight against God ('It's hard for you to kick against the pricks). I wanna preach Jesus crucified. He will let you go on and on, but he will pull you down to raise you up. You can't preach without Jesus in your life.

"Saul was killing Christians, but Jesus pulled him down and told him to rise and stand to his feet. He said, I will make you a minister and a witness. Jesus will tell you, 'Man (or woman) of God, rise to your feet and I will assign you. I have made you strong. You have been through all the heel you've been through, now stand up on your feet. I am making you stronger. The president is (see pg 3)

"What is the Battlefield News?" asked Jody Bennett, who was MC of the celebration of the 100th Edition. "It is a tool used to go out to the places we cannot go and give hope to the world, spreading the word of God to the lost. ## On Prayer 75 Blessing Others (Part one)

By: Mozelle Davis-Weeks

Any thorough discussion of prayer would be incomplete without including something specific about blessing others. I would like to bring to you five key points on this subject and the first point deals with impartment. By pronouncing a blessing on other people or group(s) of people and putting this principle into practice, we can positively affect our own relationships.

We see this principle in action all throughout the Bible. Gen 48:8-9 says, "When Israel saw the sons of Joseph, he asked, 'Who are these?'"

"They are the sons God has given me in this place," Joseph answered his father.

"Then Israel said, 'Bring them to me so that I may bless them.'"

Israel's eyesight was not good just before his death, but he wanted to lay hands on his two grandsons and pronounce a blessing upon them.

While reading this same passage some years ago, the Lord spoke to me and said, "Don't just read it; do it! I want you to bless your children. I thought, 'Lord, what would I bless them with?'"

At that time Richard, who was a pastor, and I had one child that was suffering from "preacher's-kid-osis." Immediately I blessed that child with a hunger for God and for his word. Another one of our children always seemed to be close at hand whenever an accident happened. I blessed that child with a careful spirit. Another one of our children seemed to have had sad eyes almost from birth. Concerned about her spirit, I blessed her with a spirit of joy. Then I blessed another of our children with an obedient spirit.

The next day, the child with preacher's-kid-osis was not feeling well and, therefore, stayed home from school. I went in to check on him later in the morning and he was on his bed with Haley's Bible Handbook, Strong's Concordance, The King James Version, the NIV, and the New King James all open. And he was in intensive study. I imparted the desire for God's word into him without nagging, preaching, or saying, 'Hey, you're missing out on God. You don't even worship anymore. What's wrong with you?' I did it secretly in the prayer closet, and the child was supernaturally affected for good.

Interestingly, the blessings I prayed for my other three children were also honored by the Lord. The child who was sad is happy today. The child I blessed with an obedient spirit is very obedient, and the accident-proneness has stopped for the child who seemed plagued in that area.

Garden of Life

By: Wade Carey

Wade & Elisa Carey

"Like worthless possessions, which are temporary, and therefore not eternal. Let me cite you one more verse: I Tom 6:9-10, 'Those who want to get rich fall into temptation and a trap and into many foolish and harmful desires that plunge people into ruin and destruction. For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil. Some people, eager for money, have wandered from the faith and pierced themselves with many griefs.'

"I never said I wanted to be rich," Henry challenged. "I don't consider myself greedy – or desirous of riches. I just want to..."

"Hang on there," Jerry quickly interrupted. "I realize that you want to do what you wish by purchasing what you want. I'm sorry Henry, but that's basically the same thing as worshiping money."

"How so?"

When you engage in worldly pursuits to soothe your soul, you step outside the spiritual garden that God has ordained for you. In literal terms, you often end up obtaining obsessions you can't necessarily afford and probably don't need. Eventually, you end up accumulating a lot of temporary things that God didn't want you to have in the first place."

"How can you tell the difference?"

That's a good question. Literally speaking, I would say that in general, when you buy things more for the joy of the purchase than for need, you're probably heading down the wrong path."

"For example?"

"Let's say you have a nice, slightly older TV in your living room – which you actually do. At the rate they're coming out with fancy new televisions today, your current one will be outdated soon; if it isn't already. Now then, if you have the extra money to go buy a new TV, and you really like to watch TV, then fine. Go for it. On the other hand, why should you go into debt for a fancier unit if you really don't have to? All that will end up happening is that you stick the still-usable one out in your garage and it'll sit there, gathering dust. You won't want to get rid of it because it's still useful. So there it will sit."

Children of Tender Love

By: Jody Bennett

In Jinja, Uganda is the Tender Love Orphanage administered by Mr Dominic Mugagga. There are a precious few people in the alliance who help support these children. The Battlefield News brings you closer to some of those children and urges you to call the Battlefield News if you will do even the smallest thing to help them – (706)499-7976. There are things that may be junk to you, things you would give to the Goodwill, which, by the way, is not even a nonprofit organization any more, things might even throw away, that would not be junk to them. There is a container at Unity on a mission where you can bring those things that we may send to these children.

Ochitti Douglas

Douglas was born 24 April 2001 and lost his father a year later due to AIDS. He was taken in by his paternal aunt, who later contacted us for help when she could no longer help him with the needs of a young man his age, like education. Douglas came into our home in 2009, and was among the first children we opened our doors to. He has eaten, slept, dressed well and is now in school pursuing his life's dreams. He is a bright student and excels in his classes. He is in senior 4, loves singing and soccer, and aspires to be a physician.

Ping Pong Balls (Part Three)

By: Rick Hempton

Rick Hempton, founder WBCA

Many people believe that faith is on the one side and logic and reason are on the other side. We see this plainly by the worldly dictionary definition of faith. I cannot, however, stress strongly enough that nothing could be further from the truth.

As we have seen, it is not faith one the one side, with logic and reason on the other; but, instead, it is faith and reason on the one side and emotions and imagination on the other. This is an excellent reason not to allow our relationship with God (or anything else in our life) to be ruled by our emotions. There are many times in my life when I don't feel saved. The truth is that it doesn't matter what I feel; what matters is what I know to be true. Even with all these things taken into consideration, there is still a grave misunderstanding among many Christians themselves about faith. This misunderstanding seems to be very common, and involves what I call the Ping-pong-ball misconception.

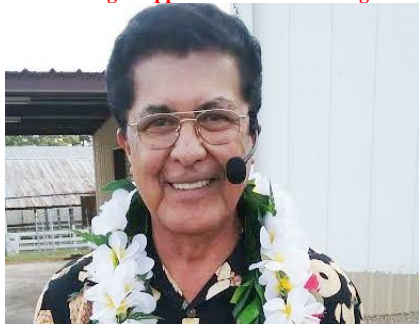

Imagine that I had a large bowl filled with ping-pong balls, and on each one was written the word "faith." I set the bowl in the middle in the middle of the floor and tell you to just "Have more faith." You could just reach into the bowl and take as much faith as you want to have. Does that sound absurd? Good! Then you can see the problem. When we tell someone that they just need to "have more faith," we are being just as absurd. We are demonstrating this misconception. We are demonstrating that we do not completely understand how faith works. Well then, exactly how does faith work? To understand this a bit better, let's begin in Rev 12:9, "The great dragon was cut out, that old serpent called the devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world." The Bible tells us that Satan deceives the whole world. People, that includes many Christians. He may have to use different tactics with Christians, but knows how to do that. With Christians, he uses things like religion (or religiosity) and traditions. He also uses our pride. I John 4:4 says, "Greater is he that is in you than he that is in the world.” We have all seen people who are very zealous and misunderstand this scripture. If we are not very careful, our pride will run with this scripture. Remember, it says, “greater is he,” not greater is me. We ourselves are not more powerful, not more intelligent than the forces of darkness. We have to have the Lord’s power to deal with them, not our own. Don’t forget the sons of Sceva.

Learning to be a Soul Winner Step-by-step training (Part Two)

By: Les Vinluan

The Right Approach to Soul Winning

Les (Brother Pineapple) Vinluan the evangelist. One important thing we need to understand is that Jesus came to die for one reason: to forgive sin and to save mankind. Luke 19:10 says, “For the Son of Man came to seek and to save that which was lost.” Mark 16:15 says to “preach the gospel to every creature” (KJV).

Today, we have a dangerous approach to evangelism. Our modern churches present salvation as a means to better life: to find God’s plan for your life; to find happiness in your life; to have your problems solved; to experience an abundant life; etc. Yet we see many of God’s people experiencing many difficulties in their “Christian life.”

To entice someone to get saved so that they will have a better life is misleading. Read Fox’s Book of Martyrs and see how real salvation turned out for them. Of the New Testament saints, Philip, Andrew, Kefa (Peter), Sh’mon the Zealot, Natan’el Bar-talmai (Nathaniel Bartholomew), and Ya’akov Bar-Chalfai (James son of Alphaeus, aka James the less were all crucified (Peter upside down, and James the less was clubbed almost to death first); L’vi Ben-Chalfai (Mattityahu or Matthew) and Ya’akov Bar-Zavdai (James son of Zebedee) both were beheaded with the sword; T’oma (Thomas) was killed with a spear upon his return home from India; Bar-Nabba (Barnabus) was burned, Yochanan called Mark was dragged to death, Paul was beheaded, Dr Luke was hanged, Ya’akov the brother of Yeshua was stoned to death, Polycarp (the associate pastor of the church at Ephesus when John the apostle was pastor and later became the pastor) was burned and run through with a sword, and Yochanan Bar-Zavdai was boiled in oil (John was boiled, however, it did not harm him miraculously. Therefore he was exiled to Patmos and it is said he died of natural causes. There is no actual record, however, of his death at all).

Still the approach of many churches today is “Come and enjoy this wonderful new life in Christ.” This produces a shallow and wrong motive for salvation; there is little or no preaching against sin; there is no conviction for sin in the salvation process. This produces many false professions and is the primary reason that 60 to 80% of churching people are unsaved.

Therefore, when we win souls, we need to present the real plan of salvation, not just have them say the “Sinner’s Prayer” and let them be, and either disciple them (making sure they know that this is part of the plan) or arrange for someone qualified and responsible to disciple them.

Called to do the Work

We are called for something else as well. We are called to do the work that it takes to bring the whole body of Christ into one body, as the Bible tells us to. There are groups of Christians around the state, around the country and around the world that exist to do this very thing and they need your help because we are all called to do this. In John 17:20-21 Jesus himself prayed, “I do not pray for these alone, but also for those who will believe in me through their word; that they all may be one, as you, Father are n me, and I in you; that they may be one in us, that the world may believe that you sent me.”

People, we need to stop acting as if the kingdom of God is all about our church and what our church is doing, as if we were the only ones headed to the kingdom.

Brother Rick Hempton told a story of what happened when his daughter asked Christ into her life. She went on a mission trip to Haiti just after the earthquake in 2010 because she spoke French. In the church compound where she was, a Voodoo temple was less than a mile away. When she could get none of the church people to go with her, she went alone to witness to the people there. She spoke to the Voodoo priest, who said, “All you Christians say something different. You should get yourselves together and then come back to talk to me.” This is exactly what the world sees in us. Jesus prayed that we all be one, then he said why: so that the world will know that he was sent by the Father. The world can never know that as long as we stay this divided, especially in America.

The harvest is ready, but the laborers are few. There is a group of churches in Barrow, Jackson, Hall, Walton, Gwinnett, Oconee, and Clarke Counties that exists to do this work. It is the Whole Body of Christ Alliance, the WBCA. There are other alliances as well, like One People Ministries, operating in Georgia, Ohio, Florida, Arizona, and Texas. In August 12,000 of 2018 people gathered at Stone Mountain to move to bring the whole body together. We are not talking about ecumenicalism - everyone compromising their beliefs until we all believe the same thing. I am talking about being different and continuing to be different, but loving each other, staying close to each other, supporting each other, and celebrating our differences. I am not talking about one world religion. I am talking about coming together with our brothers and sisters in Christ, because, if we don’t do it, and do it now, we will not be able to survive in what is very quickly coming upon us.

If you have read this far in this article, you know that what I am saying is true. I urge you, I beseech you, to turn to page 7, get the information for contacting the Whole Body of Christ Alliance. If you are willing to work for the kingdom of God - I mean actually work, not just talk about it like most people do - turn some pages, make a call and do this work.

It’s an Inside Job (from pg 1)

not your leader; I am your leader.”

“God is doing miracles right in your own home. I come to lift him up. When Jesus raises you up, you better lift him up. He says, ‘Get up, Men. Today I will make you a minister, a witness.

“Is 52:2, ‘Shake off your dust; rise up, sit enthroned, O Jerusalem. Free yourself from the chains on your neck, O captive daughter of Tz’ion.’ There are people who come to church looking like they have been sucking lemons through a gas pipe. That’s not the God I serve. Shake yourself. Shake off your dust. God is in the house. Ez 25:1, God called you as a minister. Get up and preach the word. God is not condemning (see pg 5)

“What is the Whole Body of Christ Alliance?”

The Whole Body Of Christ Alliance is a body of believers from many Christian congregations, denominations, and ministries that work together for unity in the body of Christ; not all under one pastor, but as individual organ systems in a single body. We seek unity in the body of Christ, not one world religion. As the Bible instructs us, we are to work together synergistically, not against each other, nor are we to be independent of one another. No organ functioning on its own will survive very long.”

When Jody had finished announcing these things, praise and worship began with Robert (Elwood) Everett providing the music.

The Whole Body of Christ Alliance

is a body of believers from many Christian congregations, denominations, and ministries that work together for unity in the body of Christ; not all under one pastor, but as individual organ systems in a single body. We seek unity in the body of Christ, not one world religion. As the Bible instructs us, we are to work together synergistically, not against each other, nor are we to be independent of one another. No organ functioning on its own will survive very long.

If you wish to have an article published in the BATTLEFIELD NEWS or have a comment on anything you read in it, contact us. Your article may be published. Be sure to keep a copy of it since it will not be returned to you. Nor will you receive any financial compensation for it.

Most things in this 101st edition are not copyrighted materials. All ministries are encouraged to reproduce all or any part of it for God's purposes.

If the WBCA has not contacted your church or pastor, and your body of believers would be included, we will get to your church eventually, but don't wait until next year. The Lord may come for his bride before that. Contact us.

Derrick Morris Benefit

Wayne Maddox organized the benefit singing at Living Hope Christian Fellowship.

Derrick Morris

After the service was opened with prayer Starr Phipps ushered in the Holy Spirit. She sang eight songs, but with Starr's voice and passion, there is never enough.

Starr Phipps of the WBCA

Joey Baker & his wife Pastor Martha of New Emmanuel

John Wayne Maddox, the man responsible for bringing about the singing, introduced Blood Bought.

Blood Bought

Zach, the son of one of the couples in Blood Bought, sang the last tune.

Blood Bought had all the people clapping and singing as they sang five songs.

Stanley Pierce

The next to keep the music flowing was Stanley Pierce, who sang five songs that lifted and encouraged everyone in the church. He announced he would appear at the Food Factory in Cornelia, where an all-you-can-eat dinner would be served from 1730 to 1900. In addition, he announced that he would be hosting the 21st annual St Jude Benefit Singing at Hopewell Baptist Church at 1800 (6pm) on 3 August. This all came about when his son developed leukemia as a child and was treated at St Jude's Children's Hospital. "They were so good to us that I could never give them back enough," Stanley stated. He told the people that a love offering will be taken with 100% going to St Jude's Children's Hospital.

Derrick Morris then came forward and told the story of what happened that horrific night when he was stabbed in the back. "Around midnight," he explained, "I went outside to investigate a car in my driveway. When it looked like the car was leaving, I turned to go back inside. That is when I was stabbed."

Many talk about people who have stabbed them in the back, but fortunately, it is only figurative. With Derrick it is quite literal. He is self-employed, but still, he was unable to work to support his family – his wife and four children, who were with him at the benefit.

Pastor Allen Stevens of Living Hope introduced Derrick.

Derrick Morris

Derrick and his family beside John Wayne Maddox

Derrick said that he had shown more love during this time than he ever imagined and he thanked everyone for their love and support.

The love offering was taken up and prayed over. Clarke Kesler introduced his friend Freddie Smith, who played several original songs, blessing everyone.

Freddie Smith

When the people began to arrive at the church, all were given two raffle tickets. After Freddie sang, Clarke Kesler drew three names and gave away three sets of CDs from two of the groups that were playing. Hot dogs, beans, and other food was sold in the administrative portion of the church.

Clarke Kesler and Friends

Clarke Kesler and Friends, including Freddie Smith and John Wayne Maddox, were the final group to perform at the singing. John Wayne Maddox and all the other people who volunteered their time and resources, including Pastor Allen Stevens of Living Hope Christian Fellowship, First Lady Wanda Stevens, Pastor Larry Percifield and his wife Nina blessed many people besides the Morris family on that evening. Everyone left with a full belly and a satisfied spirit.

session," Brian said as the people entered into that deep, soft worship. "Yeshua says, 'I love you.' He knows you, even the hidden sins you thought nobody knew about. He's not mad at you; he's mad about you. Jesus says, 'Give me back my stuff. It's mine – the lack of self-worth, the discouragement, self-condemnation, all the burdens. I paid for them.

They're mine, not yours.'

"In Chapter 15 of Luke, we see the story of the prodigal son. He returned thinking, 'what am I gonna say to my father?' The father saw him coming and when the son was still a long way off, the father probably lost a flip flop running to him. He put a robe on him, a ring on his finger, and shoes on his feet. The father said, 'Kill the fattened calf. We are gonna party tonight.' Don't run after Christianity; run after Jesus; run after God."

Brian introduced his ministry partner, Bobby Cisneros.

Bobby Cisneros

"Once a week we rent out a room in a hotel, pray for people and feed them. Our message is Jesus is here now. It's never about us getting to heaven someday; it's about being with our daddy. One of the most dangerous things in America is a professing Christian that does whatever they want. We must surrender. It is not a get-out-of-Hell free card. Jesus came to restore the garden and us to the Father. Don't confuse grace with mercy. Grace is empowerment, but not to empower you to sin. I am not a 'sinner saved by grace' – the same old person with a few bandages. No! I am a new creature. Deny yourself, pick up your cross and follow me. Jesus did not come to make bad people good; but to make dead people live. Jesus said you will know my disciples by their fruit. That fruit is love. The whole 'morality' thing leads to religiosity. Focus on Jesus, not Christianity. Jesus washed you with his blood so you could bear his image.

"It's not sinful just to be human, but a human with sin does not bear his image. When people see that new creature you are, they will become convicted because you bear his image. Jesus said, 'Stop resurrecting stuff I killed.'

I was in India last year, one of the most persecuted places on earth. Over 8000 churches were burned there last year alone. Be grateful; we can go up to someone here and pray without a riot starting or people harming you. Here the only hindrance to healing is believing there's a hindrance to healing. My wife had a dream about a young girl in India with her hair down, wearing a yellow dress, and standing beside a busy highway and a multistory building. When I went to India, this is the girl I met. Very few girls wear their hair down, but there she was, beside this busy highway and multistory building. Her dress looks white in the picture, but is actually yellow. Another little girl was deaf, but now she can hear."

Rick (Rabbi) Sipe of Ruach Adonai Alai

"Growing up," said Rabbi Rick Sipe, "I went to a holiness church. I served the Lord, but I was in and out. I was a chronic Backslider. I went into the Navy, was backslidden and depressed. I heard my daughter say, 'God, please bring my daddy back.' I worked with a Chinese Christian lady and she was crying. I asked her what was wrong and she said, 'You must come back to God right now.' I pursued my Jewish roots, but will never let go of my Jesus. God showed me it's not what you lay on the altar, but what you leave on the altar."

Karen Hall Sipe of Ruach Adonai Alai gave her testimony.

"I was the woman at the well when Jesus met me. Five times I attempted suicide. Yeshua set me free. I met my husband Rick and we were married. I was a broken vessel, but God healed me. I will not move until the Holy Spirit says, 'move.' I am so grateful for where I am today."

Donese Mercado gave her testimony.

shapes and sizes, as well as various decorations could be seen on the wall, all the way to the ceiling. It was amazing to see that many crosses in one area. Each room was carefully decorated with such care and simplicity. Rustic, white-washed tables and old barn wood give the store a homey atmosphere. Children's gifts, Bibles, cards, candles, wall art, and jewelry are just a handful of the types of unique gifts available. In addition, any item will be individually gift wrapped as well. It is fabulous.

Most importantly, there is a war room (prayer closet) located inside the shop as well. In the war room, prayer is the main focus. In this prayer closet, you can leave prayers pinned on the board, pray over the prayers of other people, or just spend time soaking in the presence of the Lord. There is a Bible, anointing oil, and scriptures posted throughout the room. During the visit of this reporter, the anointing of the Holy Spirit on the room brought such peace.

Greg Brockman addressed the board of commissioners of Jackson County in June 2014.

The Jackson Herald covered the event along with The Paper & the Battlefield News.

Bible study in your garage was illegal. The Whole Body of Christ Alliance led by Greg Brockman of North Georgia Revival Outreach showed up at the board of commissioners meeting and called attention to the unconstitutionality of this county ordinance.

A photo from July BFN 2014: Pastors Billy Angel, James Walker & Patsy Garrett (now Sherwood) discuss the situation

On 16 June 2014 the WBCA gathered outside the courthouse in Jackson County to pray. BFN was in B&W in those days.

"We don't enforce that," the WBCA was told. "You may not enforce it completely," countered Greg Brockman, "but first of all, someone else could be in office in a few years who hates God and his people, and they would enforce it. Second, it was enforced when a county employee shut down a tent revival on private property."

"We attended two of the meetings of the board of commissioners," said Herman Parks of the board of directors of the WBCA. "The Commissioners themselves always greatly outnumbered the people in the courtroom. When the WBCA should up that day, the courtroom was packed out with concerned Christians."

"They never had an armed guard when we came for the board meetings," Pastor Allen Stevens told BFN, "but they were a little intimidated that day and they sure had an armed guard that day." The law was changed and it only took three months.

*****Christian Counseling*****

The reverend Jeff Carr Cross of Christ Ministries has 30 years of counseling experience. If you have gone for any counseling with a worldly counseling center, which most counseling centers are, and really needed to be helped, and got tired of worldly people telling you that you should do something that you knew was against the word of God, or telling you not to do something you know the Lord wants you to do, going to a Christian Counselor is indicated. Jeff has helped save marriages that worldly counselors said were not savable. He counsels pastors that are at the end of their rope, and all sorts of situations that many other counselors would never have accepted. If you find yourself in this kind of need, you must call Cross of Christ and Marriage Menders at (770)979-2301 and (770)985-1235. Also you can go to Marriagemenders.com.

An evening of sorely needed prayer will be observed on Friday 16 August at 1900 (7pm) at Gethsemane FBH Church at 1537 Old Athens Road in Gainesville 30507. There will be no preaching only worship and prayer. All the people say that a hundred people show up for a church service, but if a prayer meeting is called, only three will show up. Prove them wrong. Call (706)499-7976 (Rick) or (706) 338-5888 (Bishop Walker) with questions.

- 3: What Hebrew married the daughter of an Egyptian priest?
- 4: What was the penalty for a man that showed contempt to a judge or a priest of the temple?
